Mid the pine hills of East Texas,
In old Polk County,
Sweetest memories we'll cherish,
Memories of Thee!
Corrigan-Camden,
Corrigan-Camden,
Surely thou wilt be,
Ever worthy of our homage,
C-C-H-S
Hail Thee!

. . . In the beginning the structure was created. There was no form or void and darkness was upon the face of the deep.

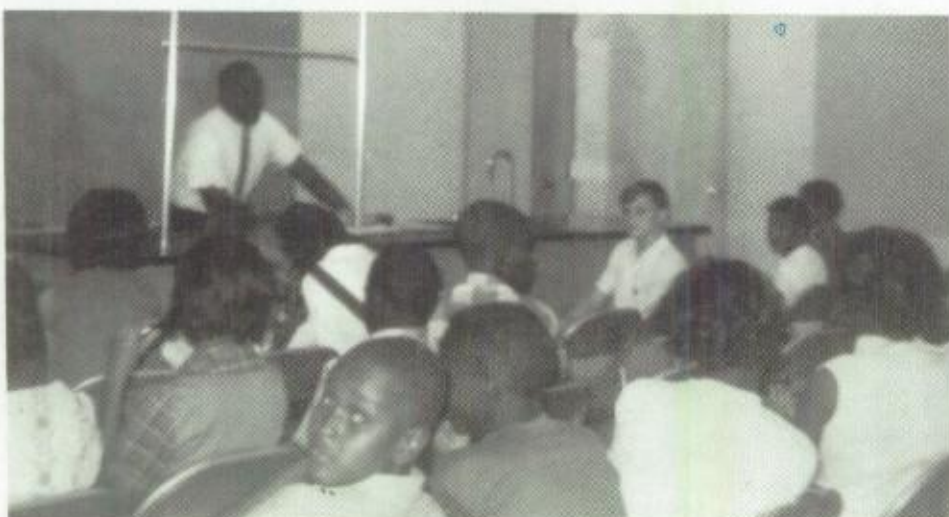

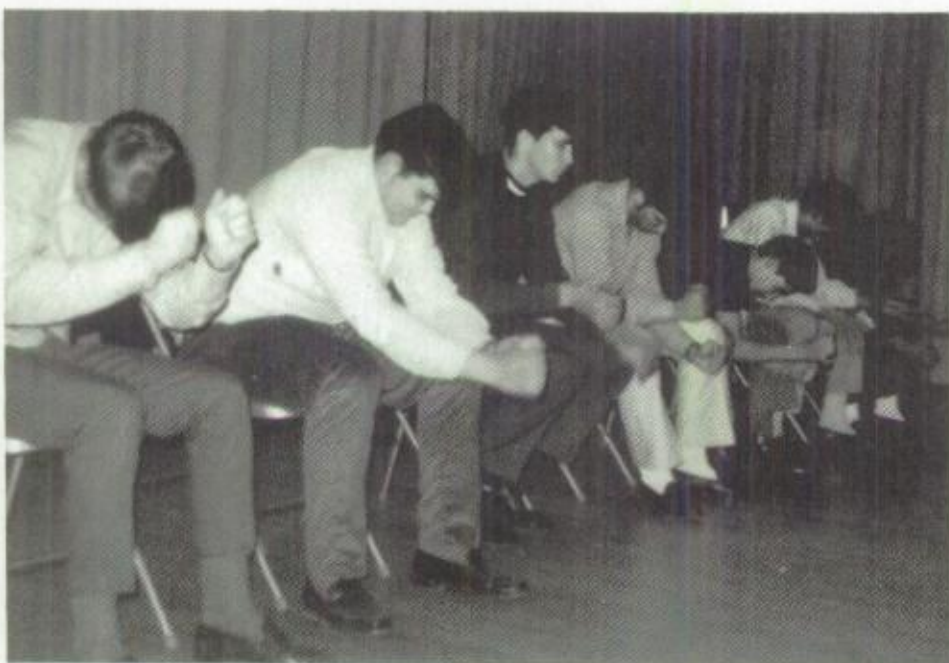

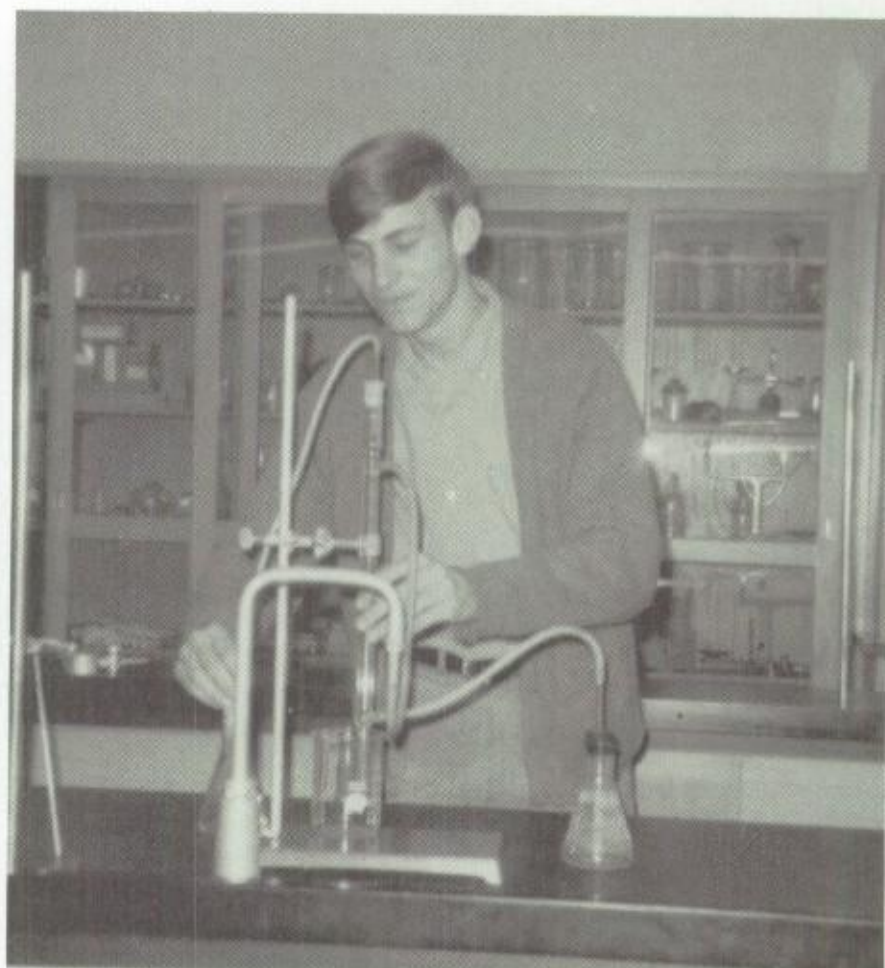

Let there be light . . .

... And there was light; light to guide the present and lead to the future.

. . . And they were brought forth, yielding the seed of knowledge . . .

. . . Bearing the fruit of life.

. . . And out of this grew the tree of life and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

. . . These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

. . . Behold, man is to know good and evil; and now lest he put forth his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever.

... And there was light;
light to guide the present and lead to the future.

Administration

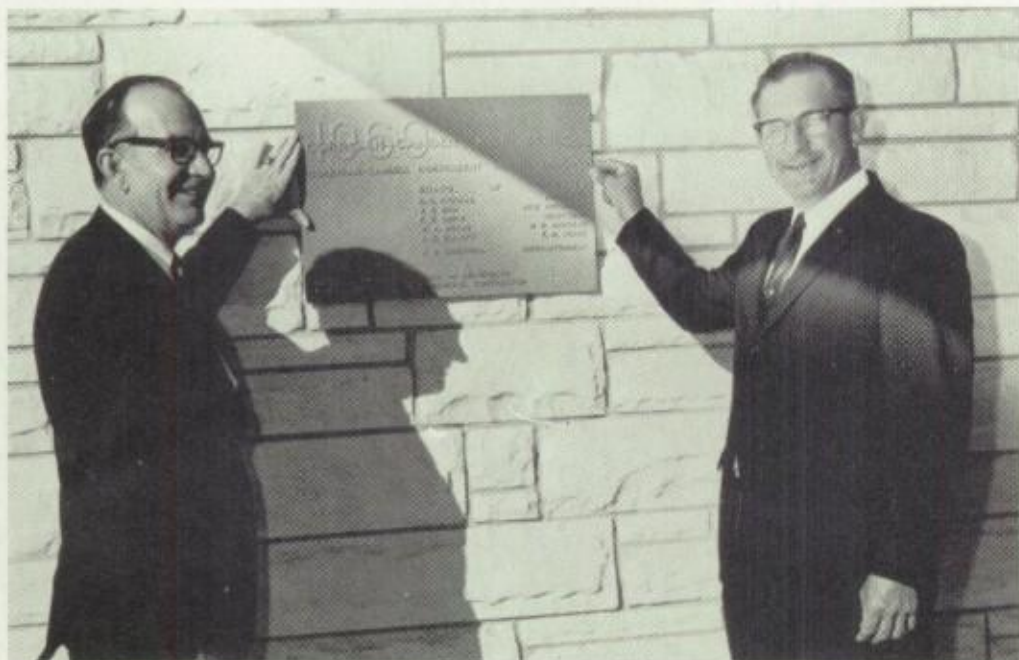

Board of Trustees members from left to right are F. E. Smith, W. B. Andrews, J. P. Dow, D. C. Stovall, A. M. Burris, J. R. Cockrell. Other members not pictured are J. S. Martin and H. G. Hoffman.

Our dream of "a new beginning" and a creation has come true because of the hard work and interest of the Board of Trustees. Hope and ideas create new beginnings, but without careful study, plans and a great deal of hard work these dreams remain in the minds of men. Because of these men, our dreams became a reality.

Board of Trustees

The dedication of the Corrigan-Camden High School building on December 21 marked the finalization of a dream: a dream that would change the ashes of the past into a foundation for the future.

Movies, Paperbacks, and Records Replace Standard English Curriculum

Goals are made not only by students but also teachers. The Language Arts Department strives to form a deep appreciation for all types of good literature and to show the importance of communicating effectively.

Stories are brought to life with the production of short plays by classes. Records and tapes often set the mood for a Shakespearean tragedy, and one can visit almost any English classroom at C.C.H.S. and find students examining a collection of paperback books or building a sixteenth century theater.

Social Studies

Miss Dicki Alston, who joined the faculty at mid-semester, explains one of her classes' projects to a student. She teaches World History and 8B and 9C American History.

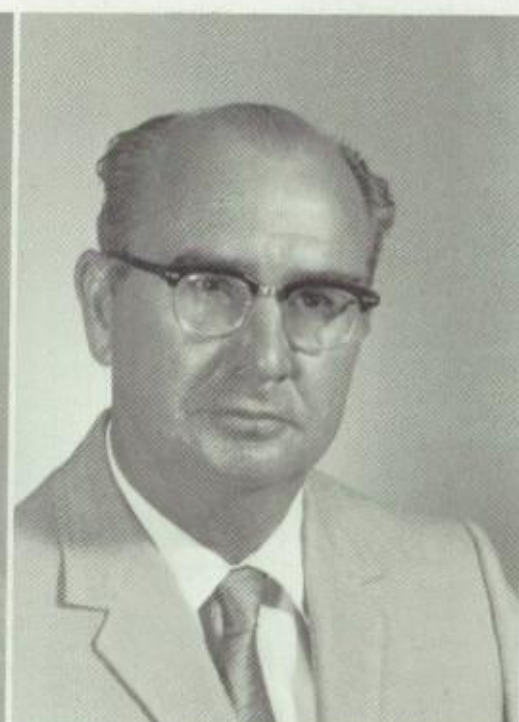

Old History Is Learned as New History Is Made

As each day passes, new history is made. It may seem insignificant at the time, but in future years it will be studied by students.

The social studies teachers at C.C.H.S. strive to keep their students aware of both current and past events. In this day of new discoveries and dynamic happenings, it is necessary to be aware of the connection between the past and the present.

Searching into the unknown, challenging theories of the past, seeking answers to the problems of tomorrow are goals achieved by future scientists.

The Science Department strives to enlighten the students with the how's and why's of the universe. The modern science laboratories aid the students and teachers to form a better understanding of the many mysteries of science.

Commercial Teachers Prepare Students for Careers

Many students who do not plan to go to college choose a career in business administration. The teachers of commercial subjects train these students in a way that they will be able to take a job upon graduation or for entrance into a business college.

Libraries Serve as Travel Agencies

Traveling, meeting new people, learning to do new things, accepting and rejecting others' ideas, and mixing facts with fiction can be fun, enjoyable, and very educational. Books can be the ticket, the transportation, and the memories of many different lives and travels. A library is the door to many worlds. Librarians act as tourist guides, acquainting one with interesting facts and ideas.

Band Has Outstanding Year

Under the direction of Byron E. Shelton, a rousing performance by the concert band and dance band on May 9 brought to an end a year of contests and awards won by the band on several occasions.

At Smiley High School in Houston, a Division II rating was given for marching and at Spring High in Spring, Texas, a Division III rating was given for concert playing.

Besides giving outstanding performances at every football game, the band also marched in several parades during the year.

Majorettes for the 1969-70 year were: Sandy Sage, Judy Reily, Mary Ann Bolton, Drum Major, Carolyn Cockrell, and Janice Murdoch, Head Majorette.

Drama Club — New Idea at C-C-S

An organization new to Corrigan-Camden is the Drama Club, co-sponsored by Mrs. Linda Fuller and Mrs. Suzanne Warren.

Formed this year, the response to the idea of appreciating drama was great. The enrollment numbered 74 and consisted of members from grades 7-9.

As a group they attended a play at Angelina College in Lufkin, Texas, and produced an interesting program titled "Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow."

In Memoriam

Timothy Lloyd Cotie

"On the sands of life sorrow treads heavily, and leaves a print that time cannot wash away."

H. Neele

The members of the senior class were saddened by the death of one of their classmates, Timothy Lloyd Cotie. We could easily say it is a great loss, and that we are saddened for this loss, but no few words upon a printed page could give justice to our real feelings.

Tim, for the short time that he was here, became friends with so many and was respected by them. Because of this fact, we, the annual staff, do respectfully dedicate the senior class section to Tim and to his memory.

It's an interesting world.

Smile at the birdie!!

Mrs. Irene Safford receives her retirement pin from Mr. D. C. Stovall, President of the School Board.

Mrs. Irene Safford Retires After 38 Years of Teaching

Her teaching life was one of giving. For thirty-eight years she gave knowledge, love, patience, and compassion to classes of elementary children. Children who were lost, forgotten sometimes, and frightened of older people found the comforting warmth of her smile a welcome refuge.

Mrs. Irene Safford retired this year, and from Corrigan-Camden there is a vacant place evident by all the graduates and ex-students who will remember her so well.

Maybe it was only a friendly smile or the pronunciation of a difficult word in reading class that someone remembers, but the ex-students of Mrs. Irene Safford will always remember her.

Her teaching life was one of giving.

Mrs. Safford stands with some of her many students.

Cleaning house can be fun!

"I was just trying to help!"

"You shall go out with joy and peace: the mountains and hills will break before you singing, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands."

Activities

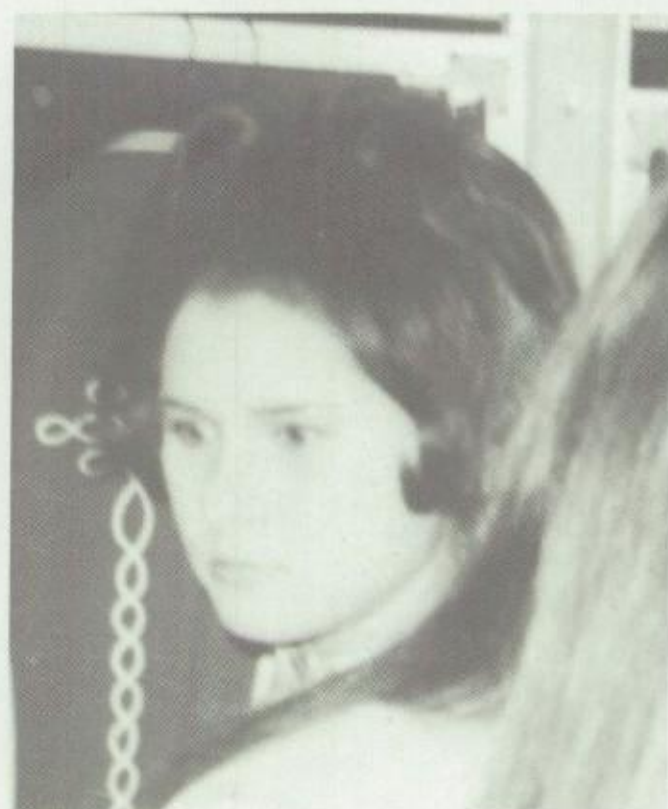

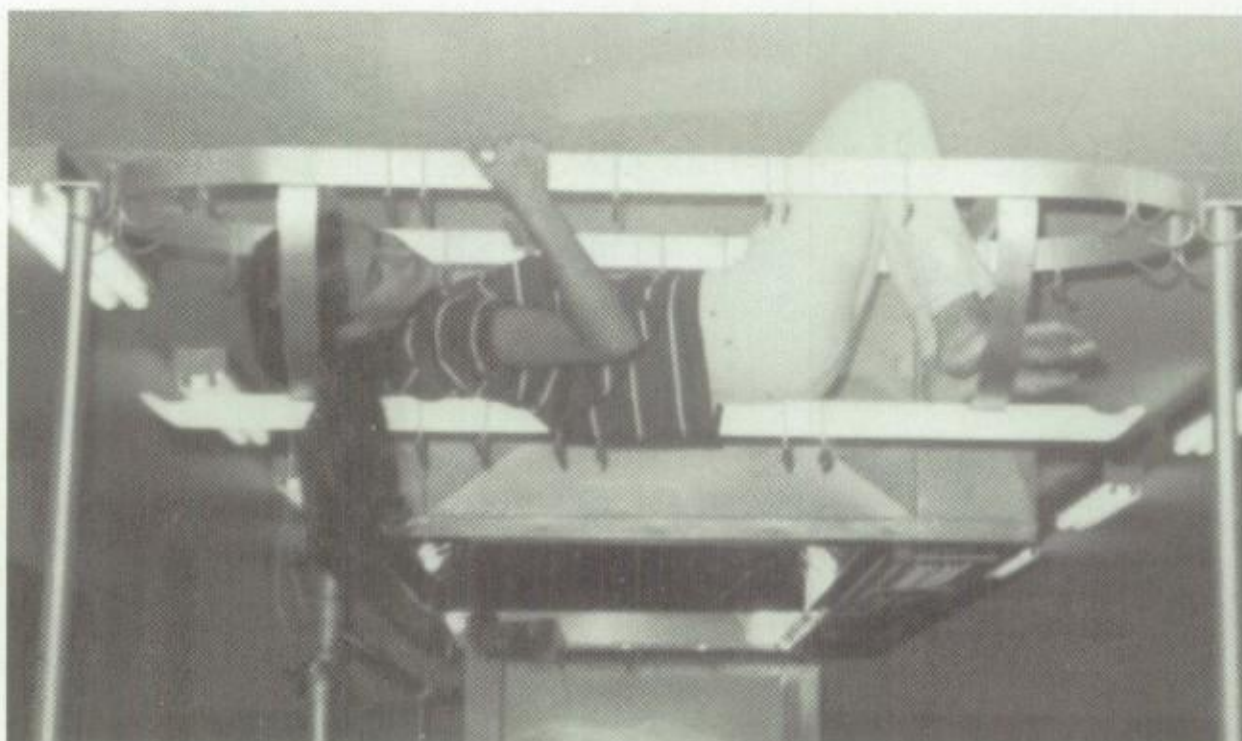

Throughout this year, we have seen a striking combination of the old and the new. The old traditions with the new ideas; the new classrooms with the old subjects; the seniors, freshmen, and the kindergarten. As we journey the road to the future, we hesitate to discard the past. Yet we eagerly look forward to the new and exciting ideas and changes which are made possible only by dedication and a strong determination to better our school for ourselves and for those who follow us.

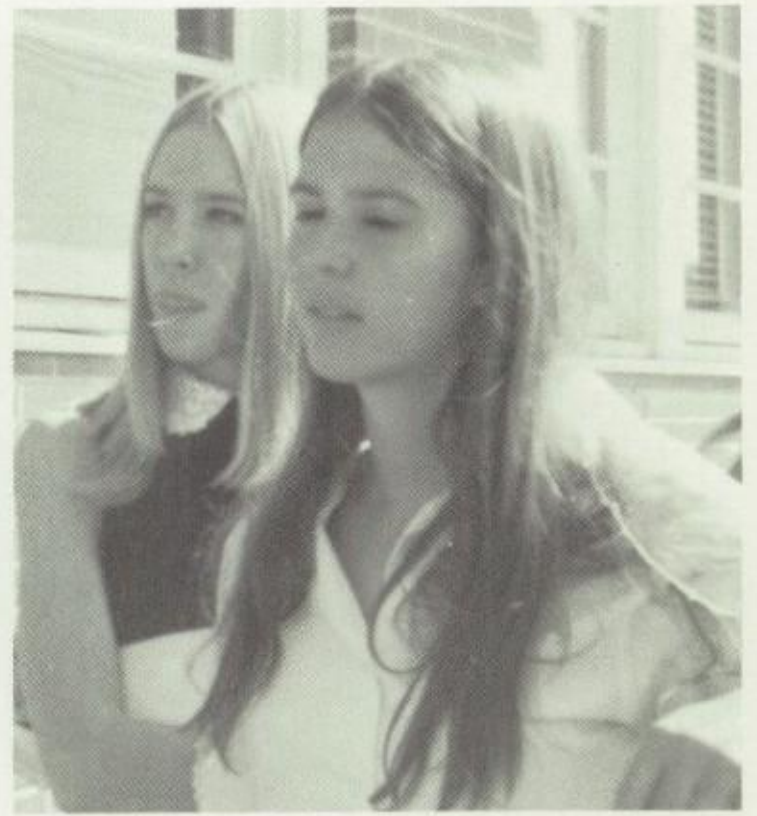

Fall

As Indian Summer disappeared beneath a blanket of falling leaves, students and teachers returned to school to disappear under blankets of books, friendships, and activities.

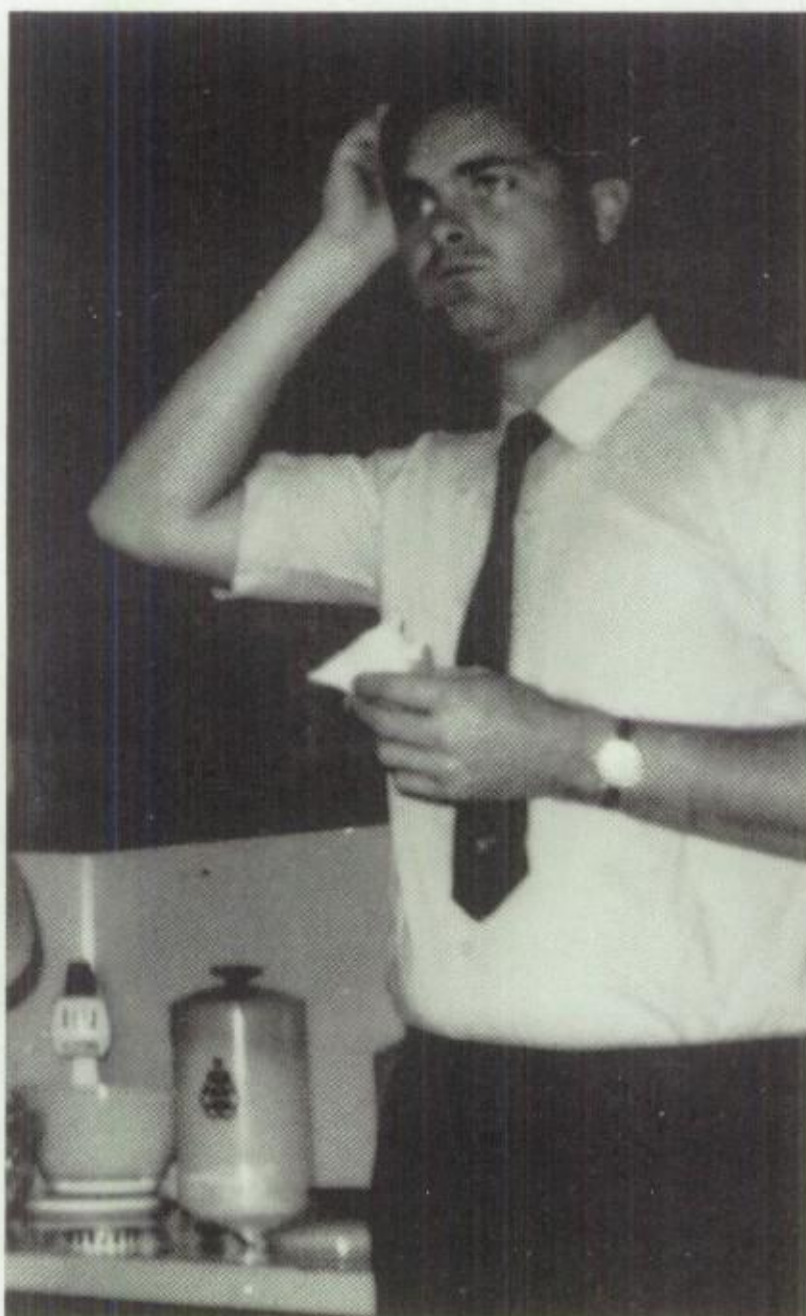

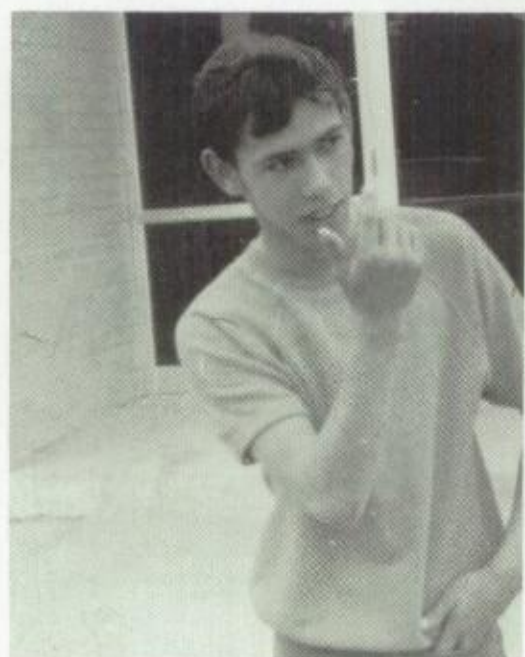

Hands tell a story: a story of the inner self expressing itself outwardly. You have to look deeply to interpret the actions of the hands.

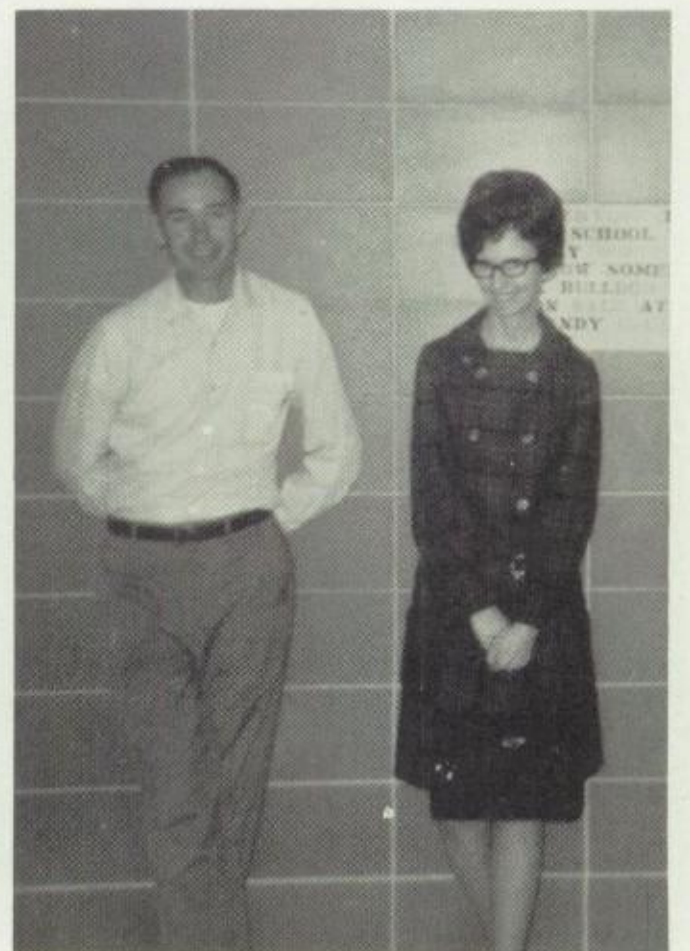

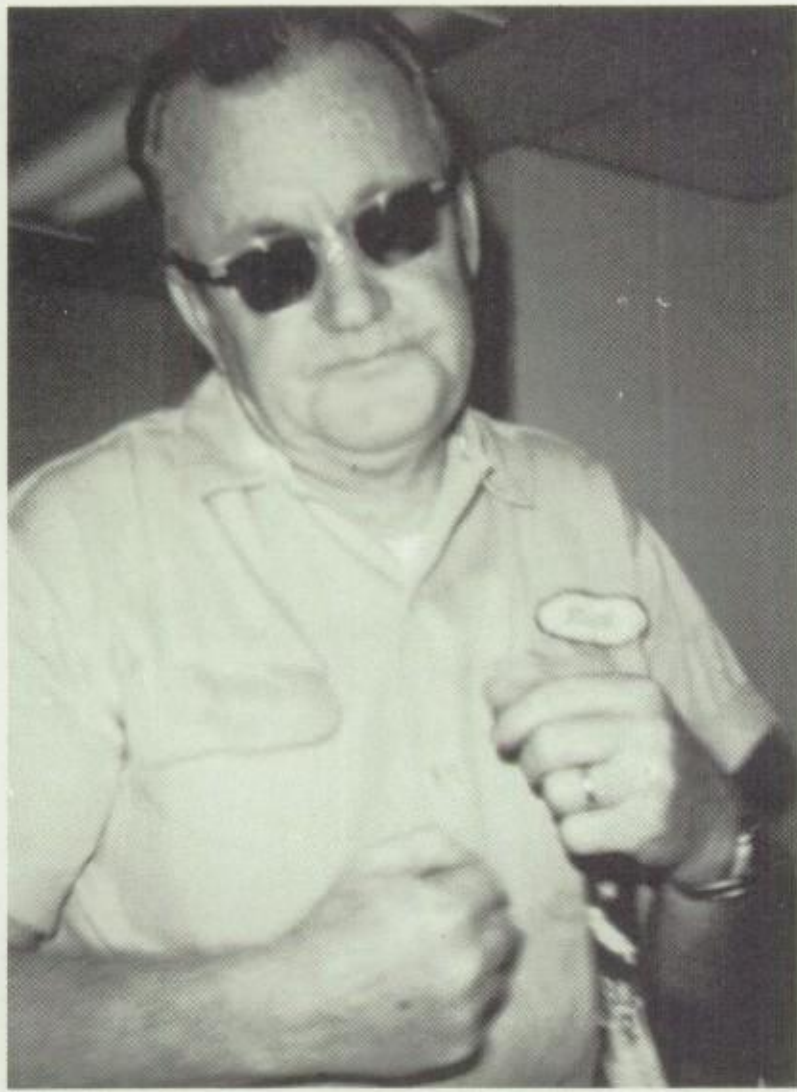

I want YOU!!

I forgot the ballgame!!

Happiness is a blanket on a cold night.

C-CHS, here we come.

Stop the world; I want to get off!!

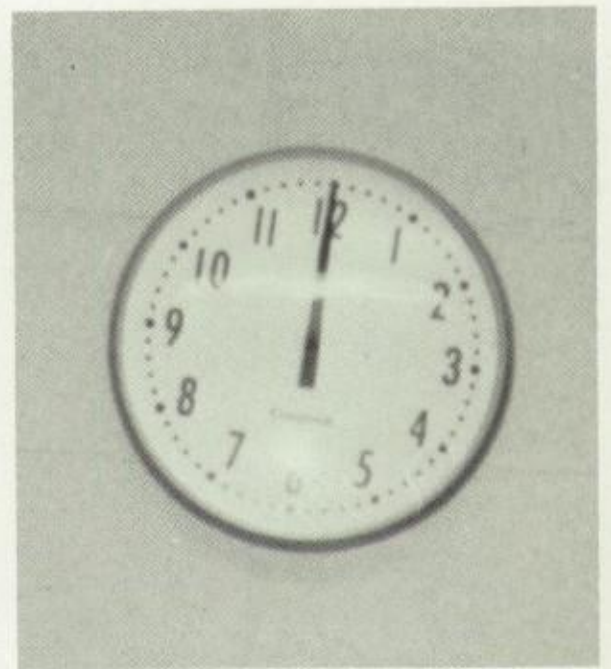

I really am camera shy.

High-heeled Sneakers

All together now, girls.

Right ... or wrong?

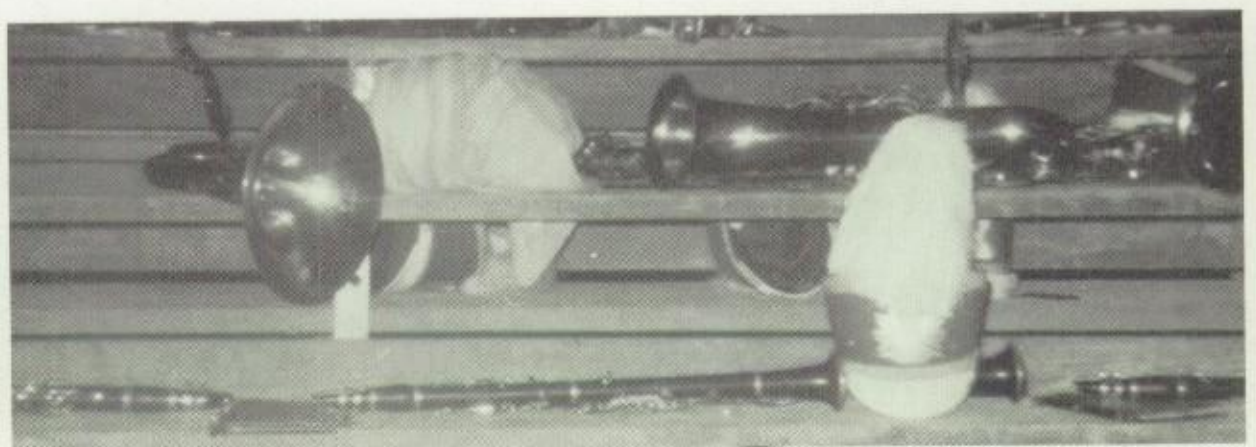

This coke sure does taste funny.

Up, up, and away.

My toe itches.

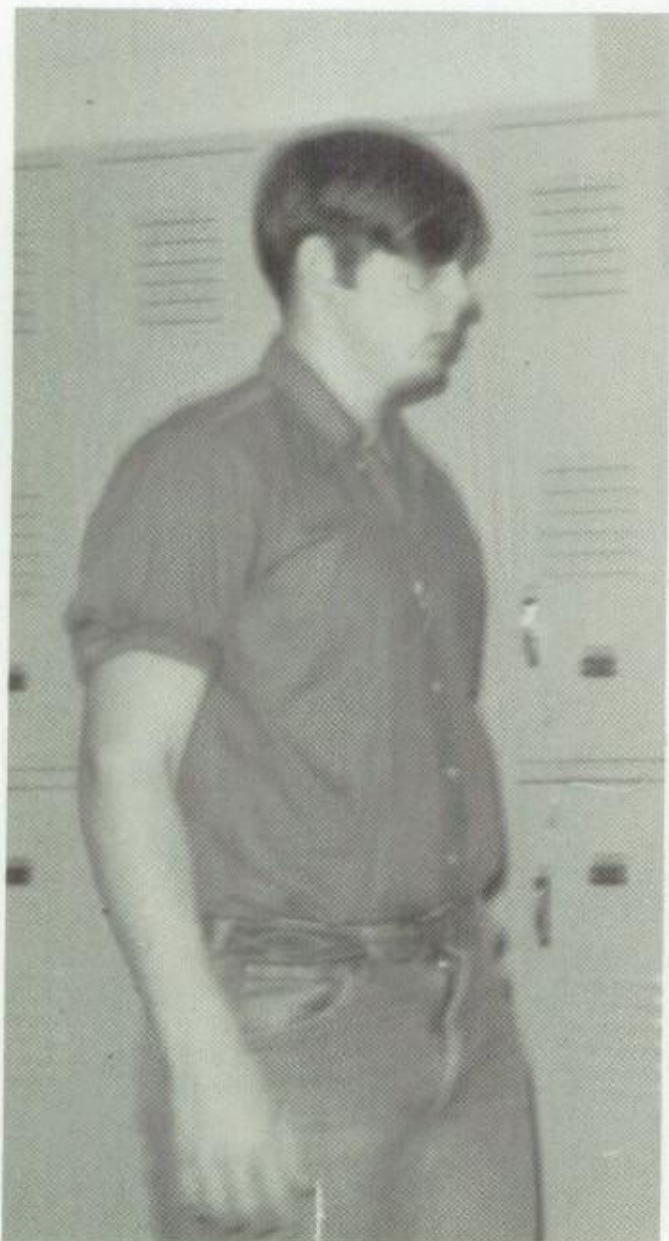

Half-time for the band.

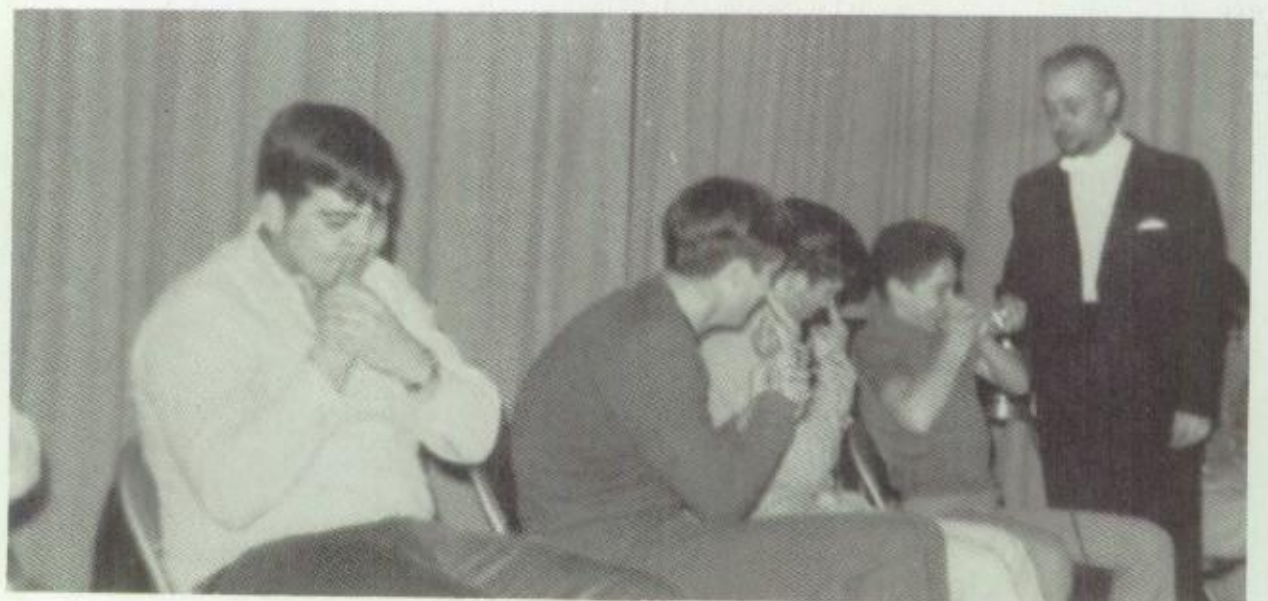

Peek-a-boo!!

The Big Picture.

Beware the Bear!

This is my nose.

Seniors received special recognition at the last football game of the season.

Red roses for Jane.

Attention, Bill. Beware of the Marines!

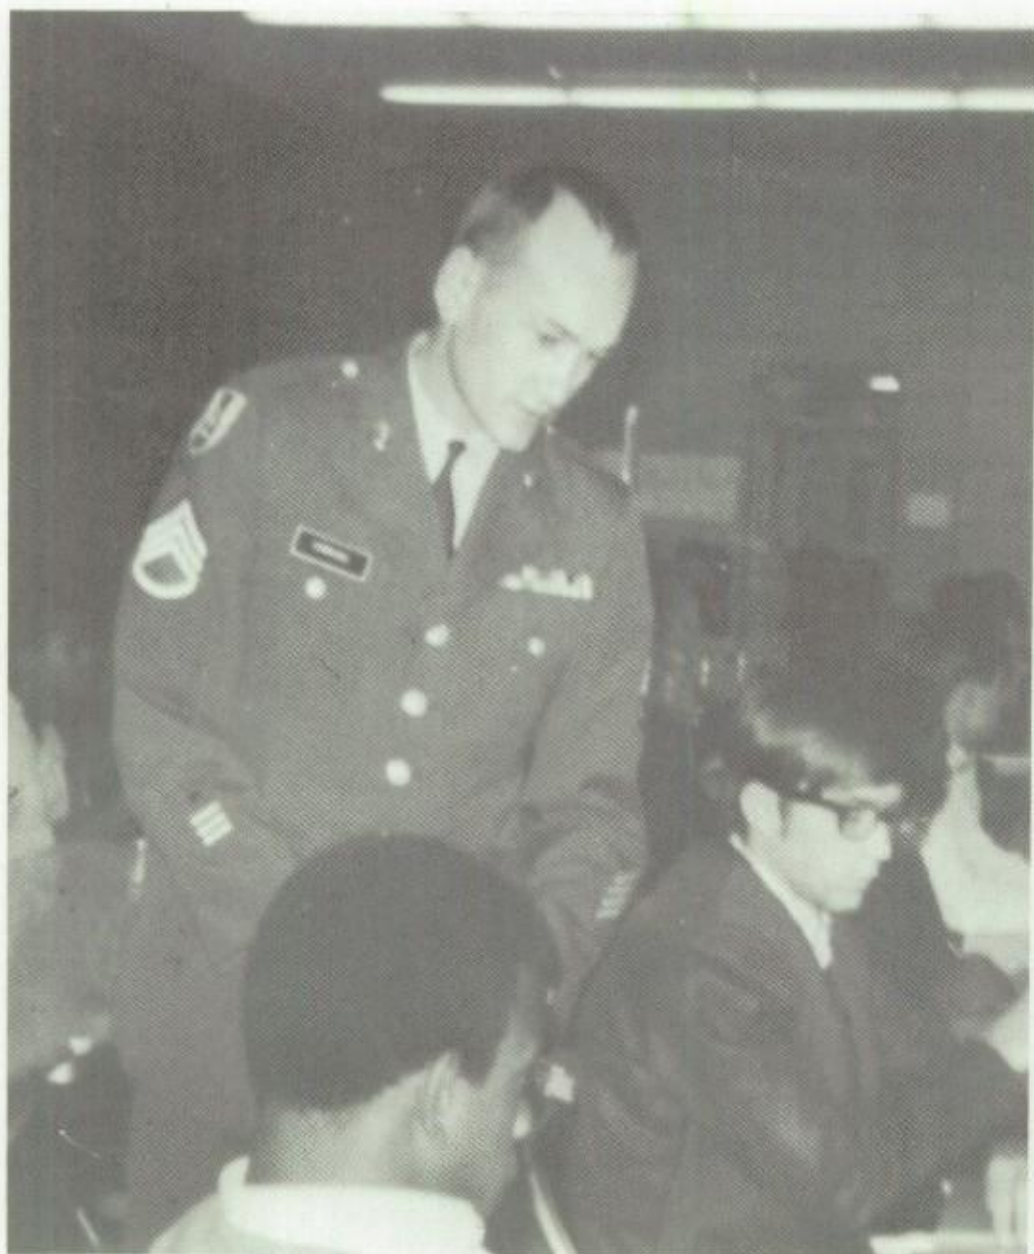

Eenie, Meenie, and Moe??

Be careful with that pin!

Where there's fire, there are cold hands.

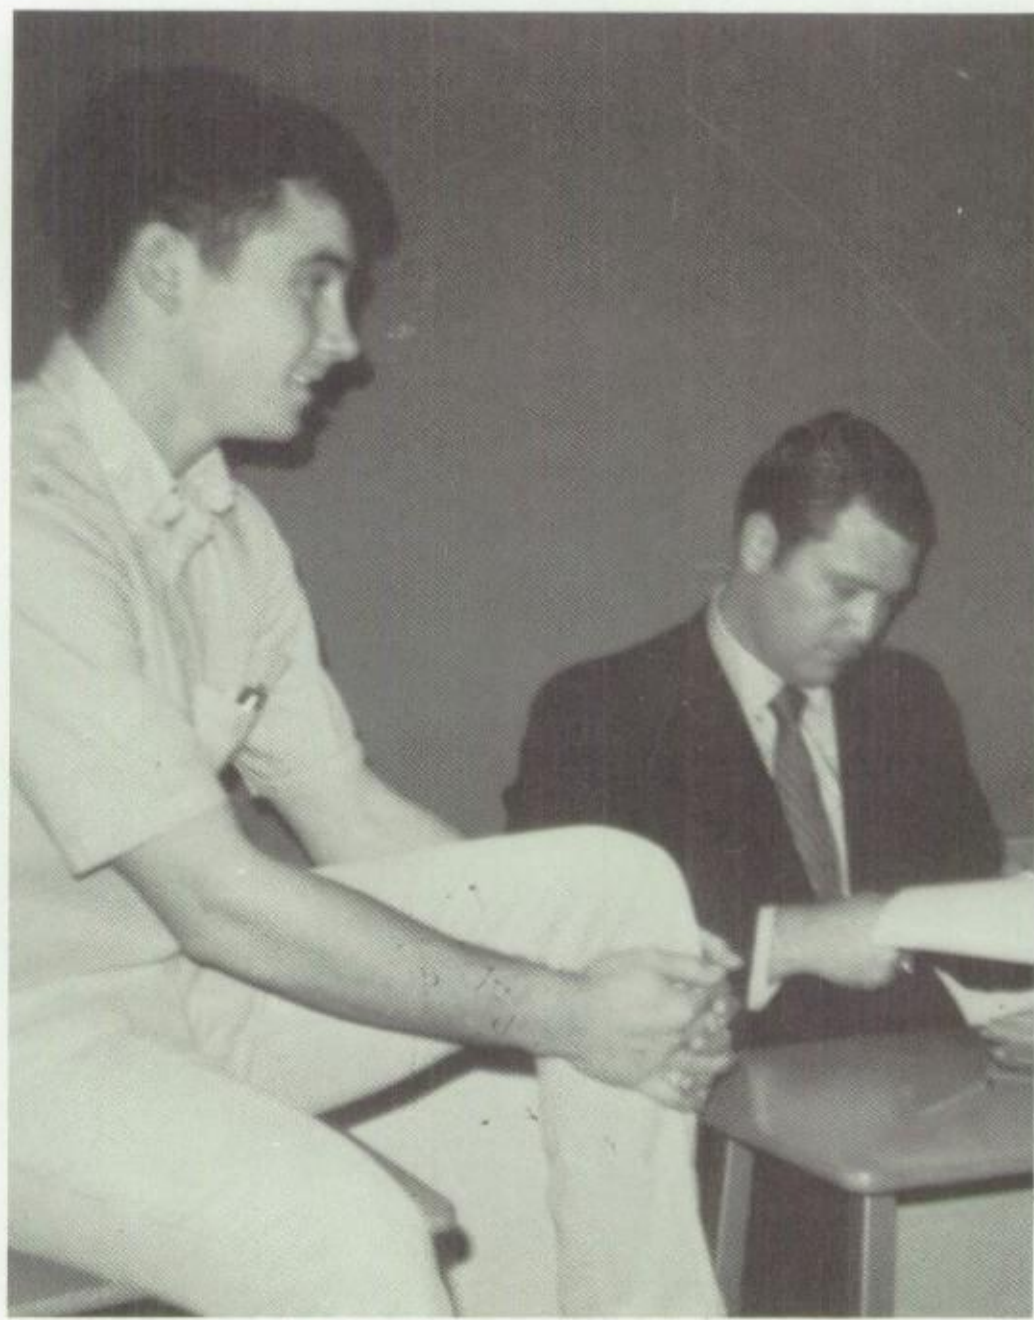

Now boys ... the Army isn't that bad!

Remember me?

A mouse? Are you sure?

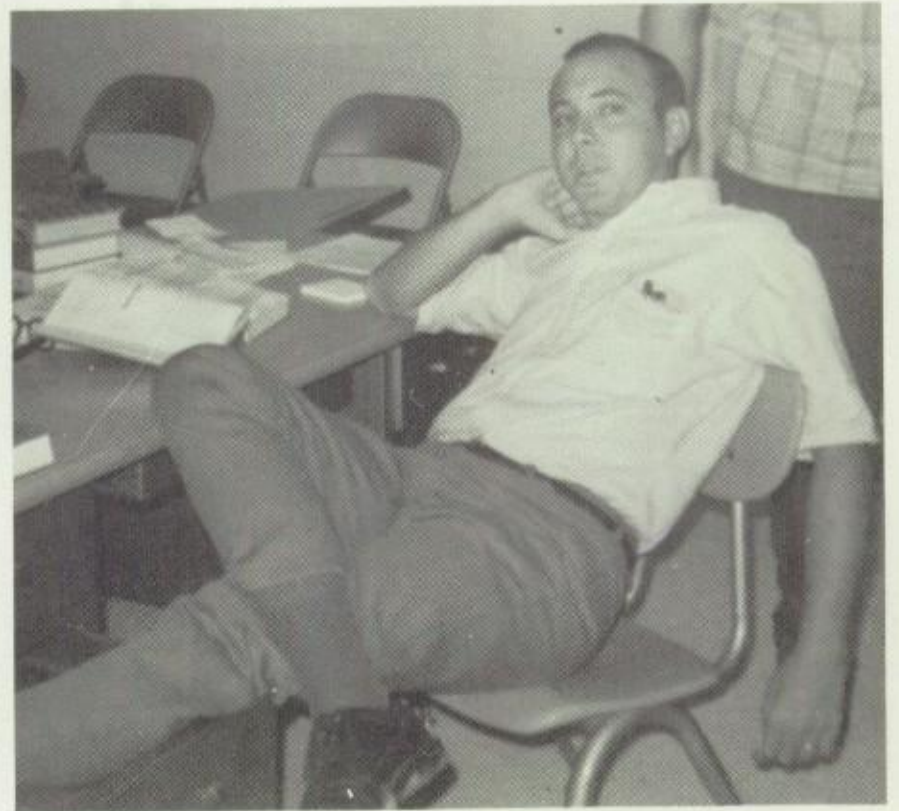

He's making me a paper doll.

We just Love our coffee breaks!

With Christmas came more activities and relaxation.

Another day ... another dollar.

Sock it to 'um!

Gifts, anyone?

A gracious good morning a Vd.

Where's Santa?

Moonstruck???

Say AAAAH.

I'm bored.

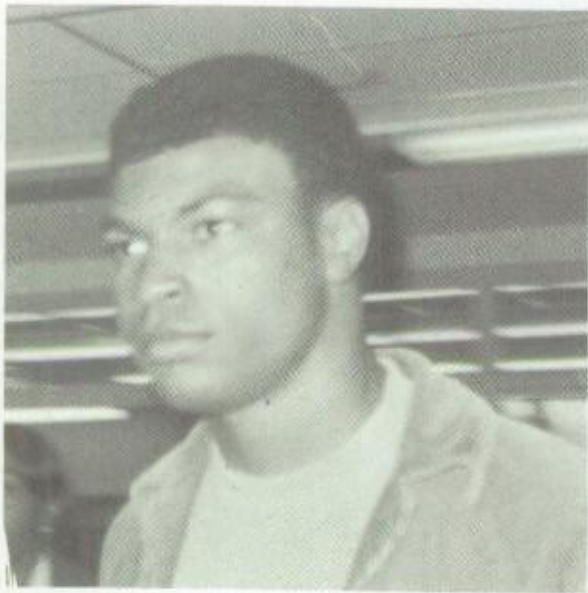

You devil, you!

Now when I say grab ...

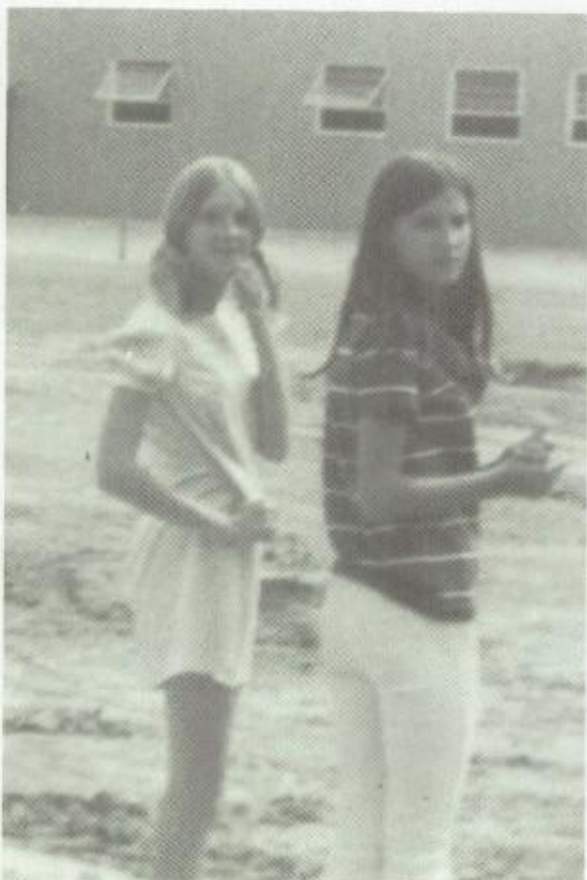

Stuffed!

Thoughtful.

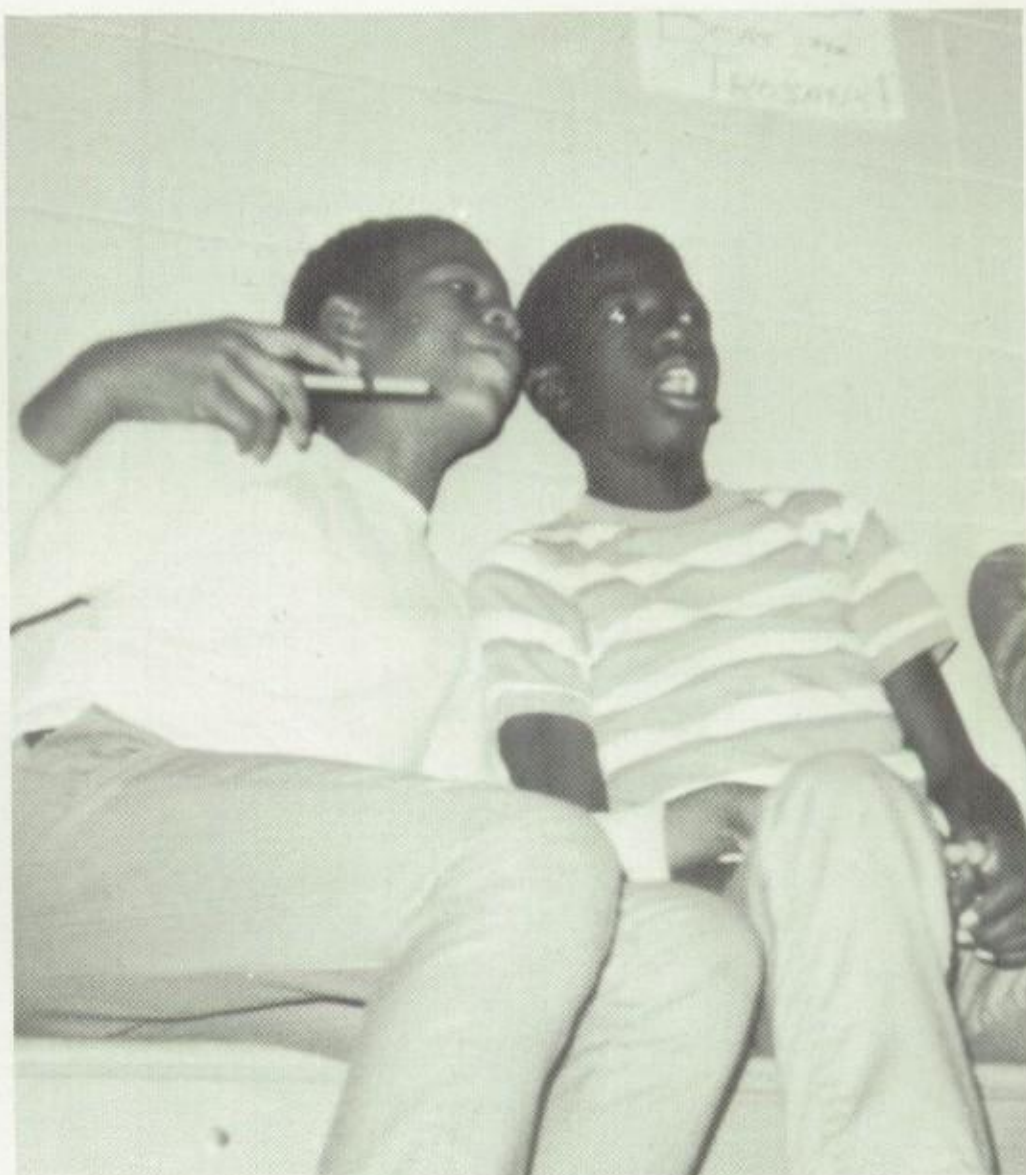

A new cafeteria staff??

But we ARE working.

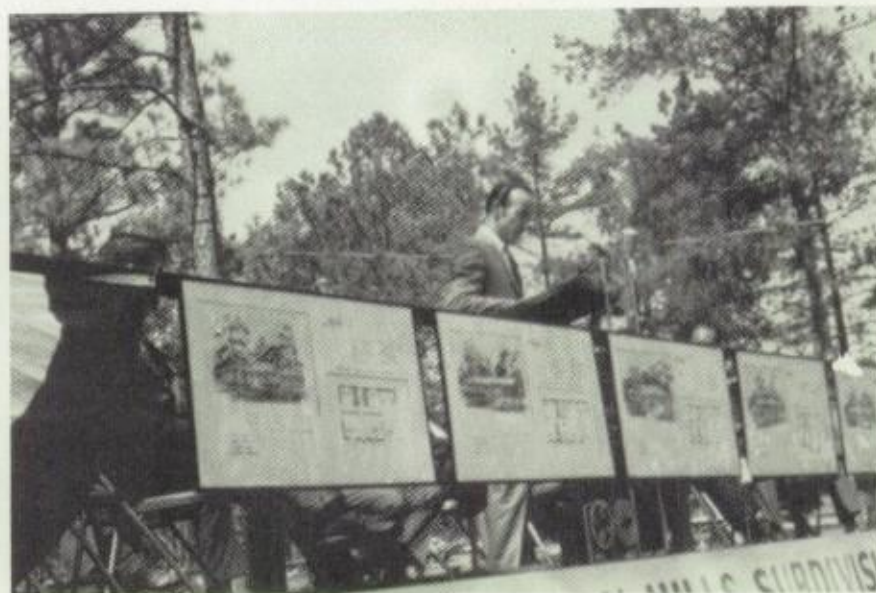

Pals.

Hey, man! Did you see that?

Chug-a-lug.

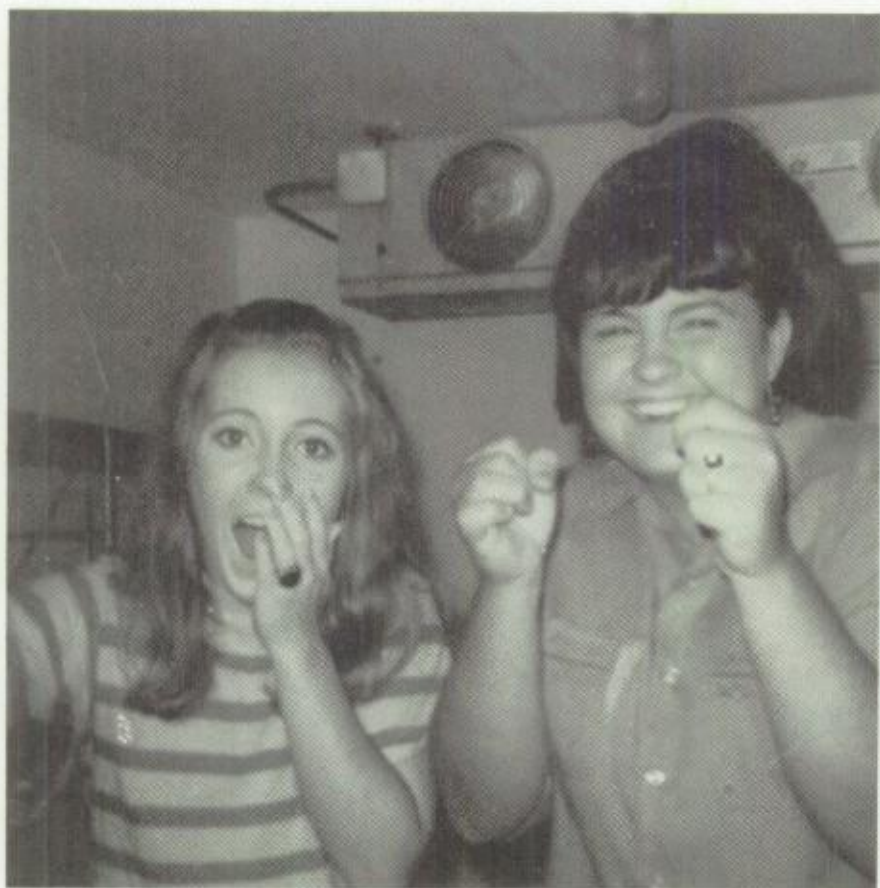

Mr. Mayor at Rayburn Hills.

I thought I saw a Putty-tat.

Our chorus department.

We're not frozen yet!!

Larry??!!

Phew!!!

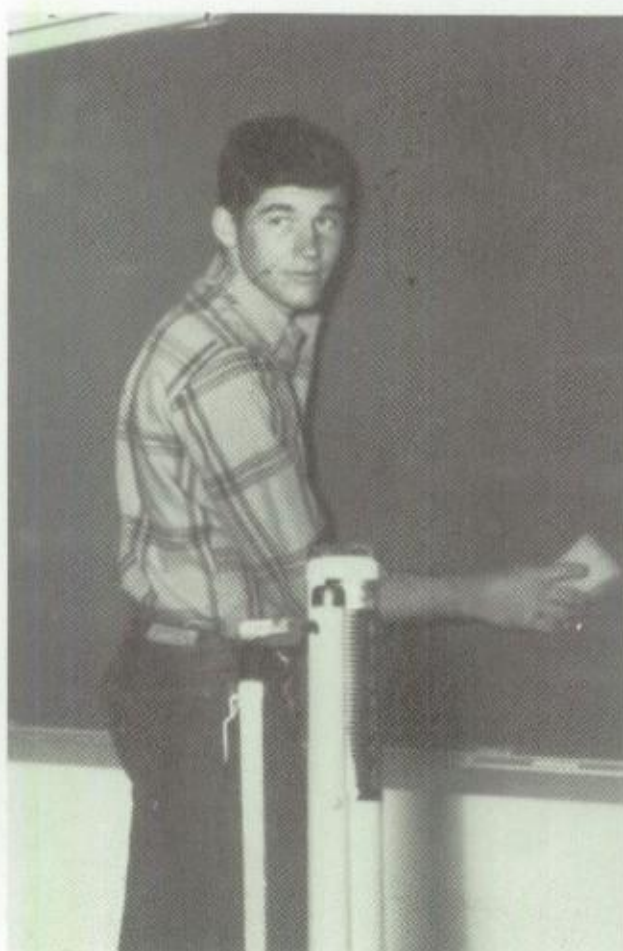

Seniors, please behave!

The band at the Rayburn Hills Dedication.

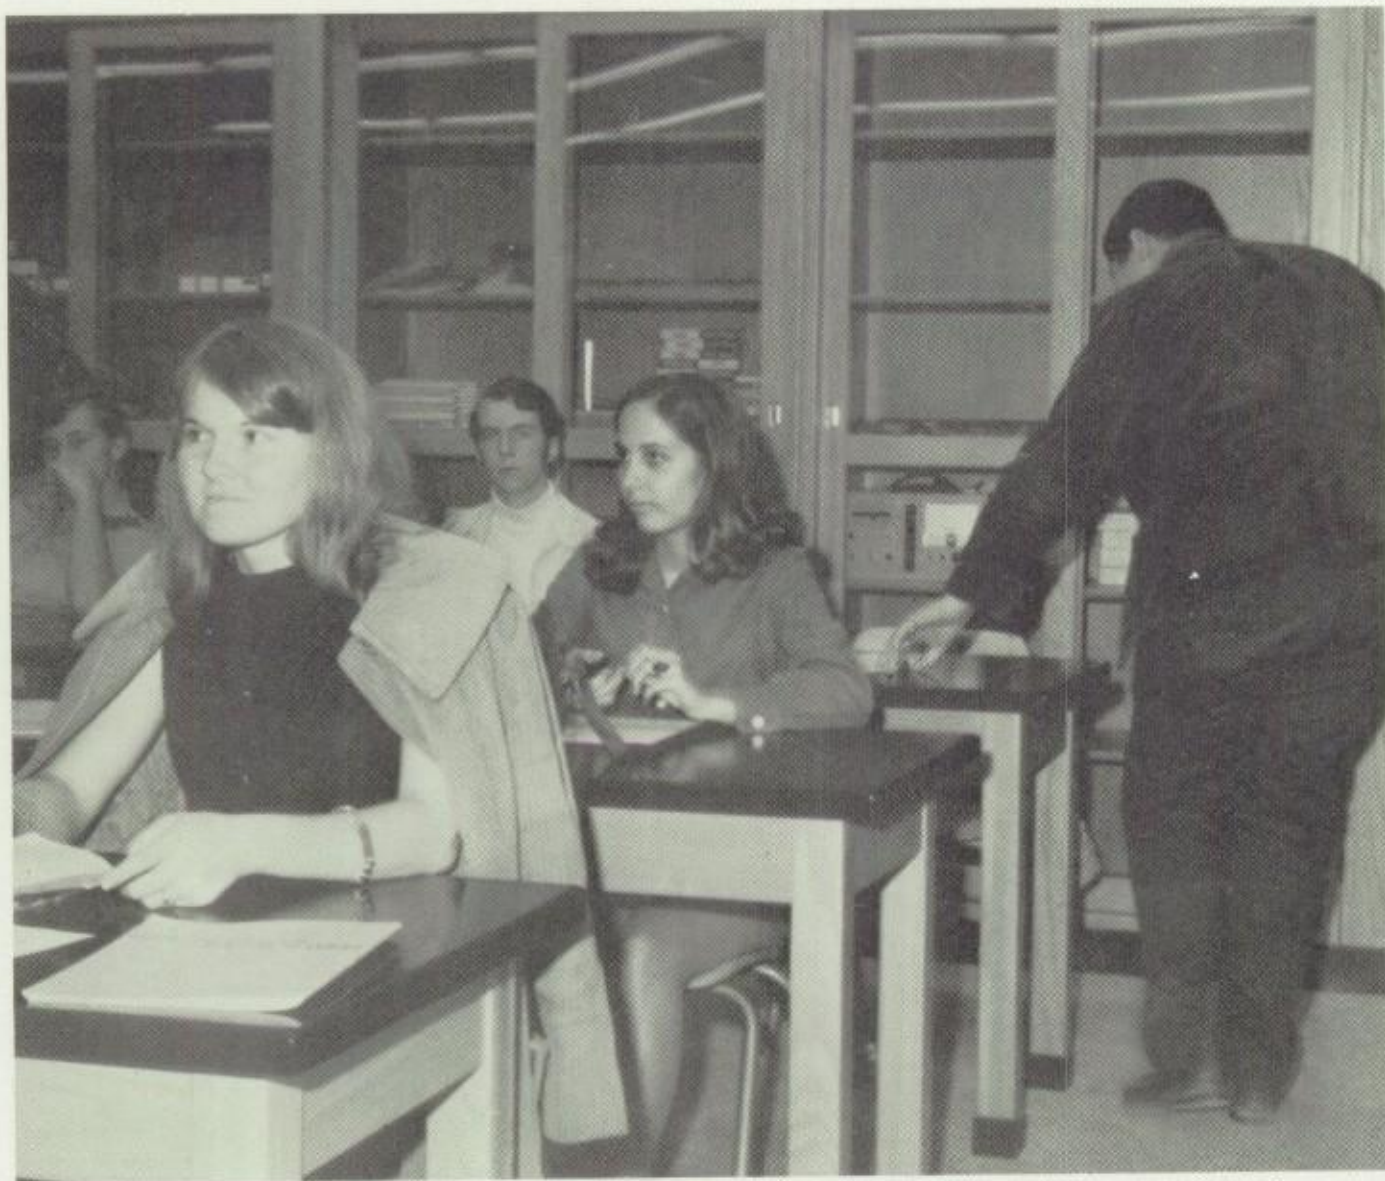

Charge!!!

Official Boardwasher?

Join now, pay later!

Will the real Terry Seago please sit down!!!

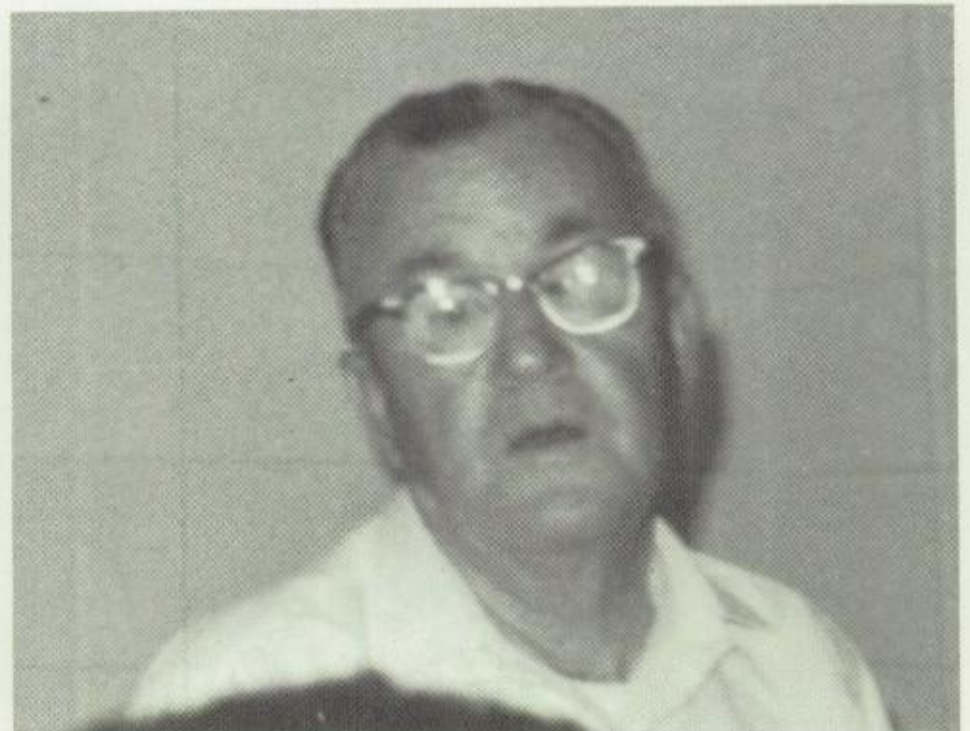

I wish he'd hurry.

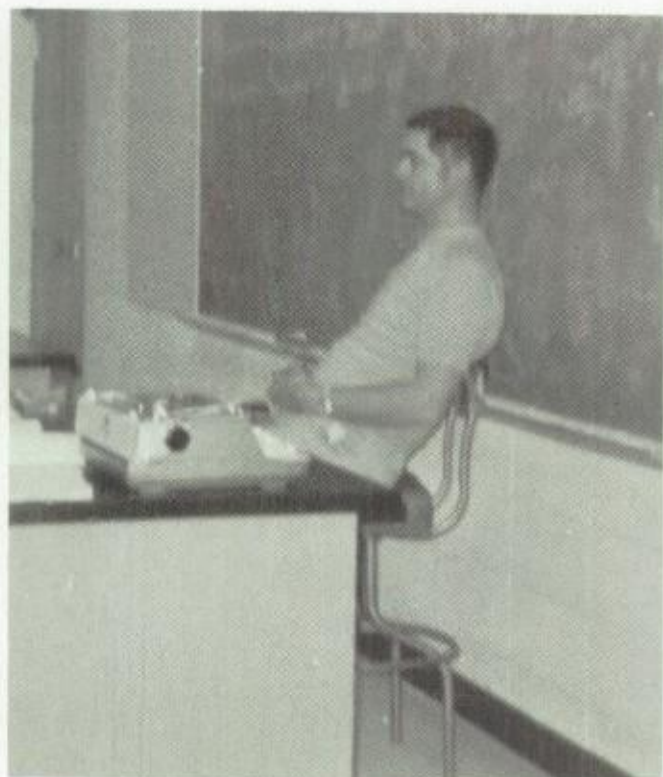

Creepy-Crawlers

Call me irresistible!!

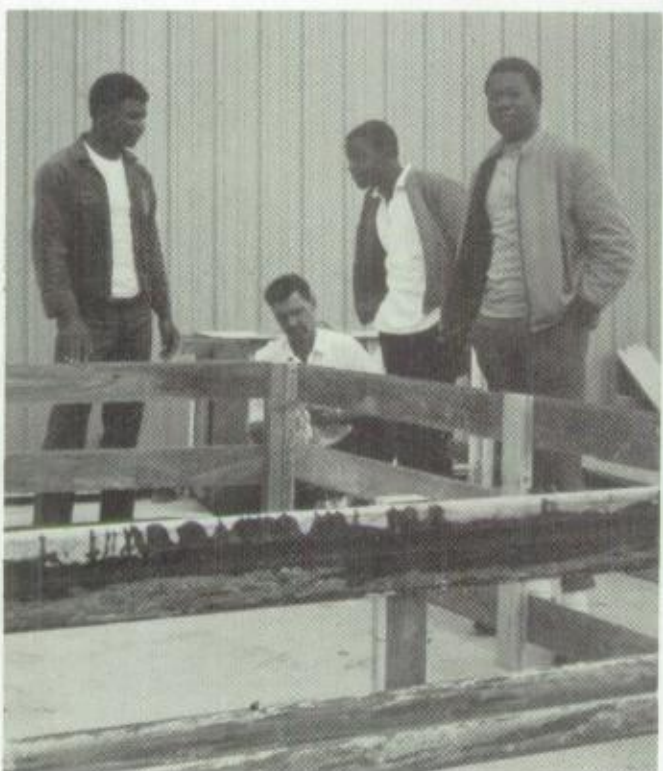

Dick Skinner - a tradition.

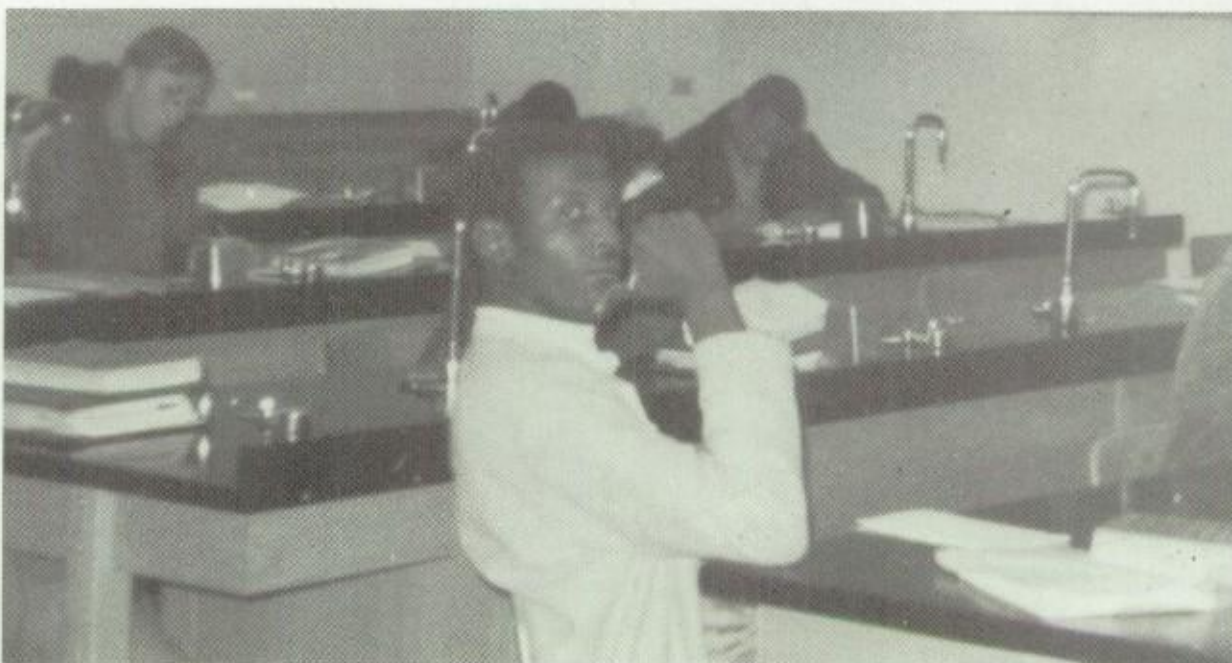

Lazy days.

Did you say ANTS in your horn???

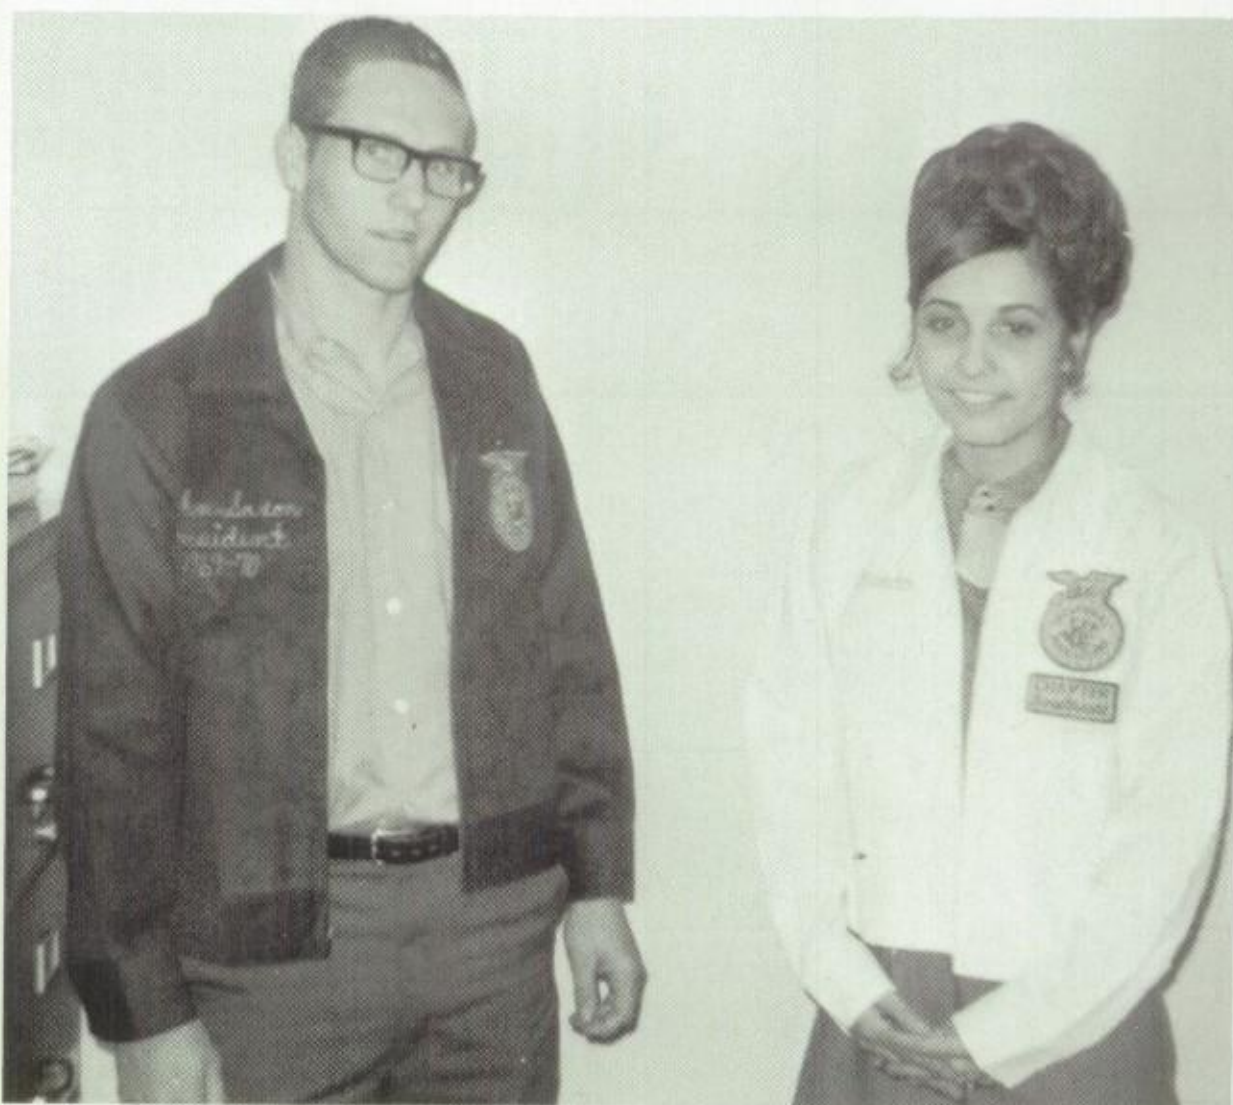

Pig pen builders.

I can't remember; I just can't remember.

South hall guard!

What goes on, Brenda? Mitch???

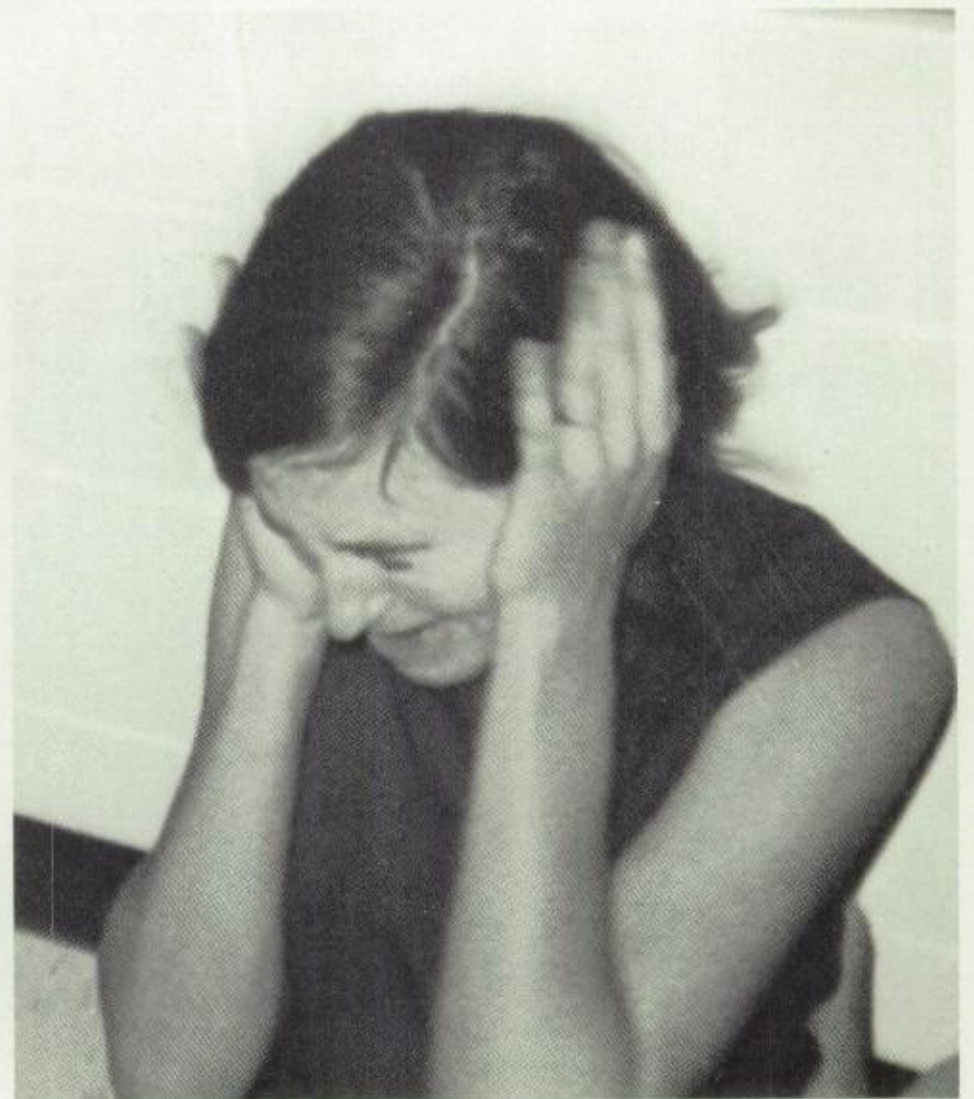

How do you boil water?

Me and my shadow.

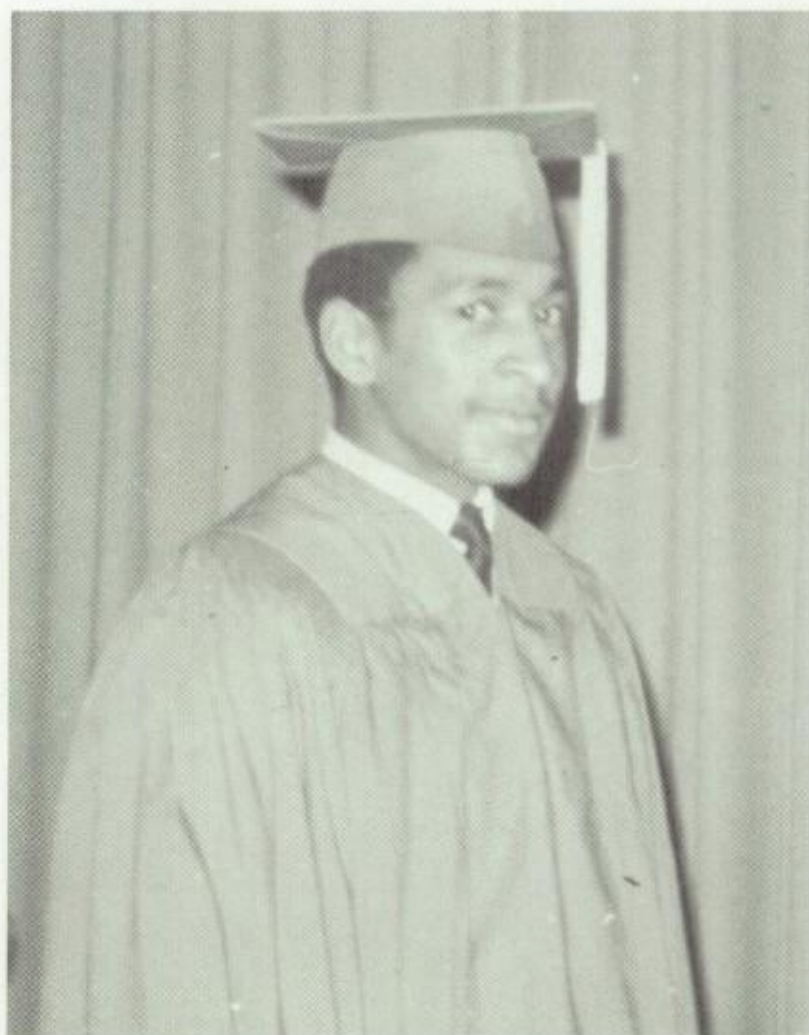

Ronnie had a date with whom??

Turn that bell off!!!

Seniors expressed anxiety over portraits and cap and gown pictures ...

... and impatiently stood in line.

The annual staff rushed to meet deadlines.

Need we say more??

This typewriter makes so many mistakes.

Picture, picture ... who's got the picture??

I'm lost.

Spring

Winter crept by on frosty feet. The barren ground gave vent to the greenery of life, and Corrigan-Camden welcomed Spring's coming with Western Day on March 6.

Ride 'em, cowgirl!

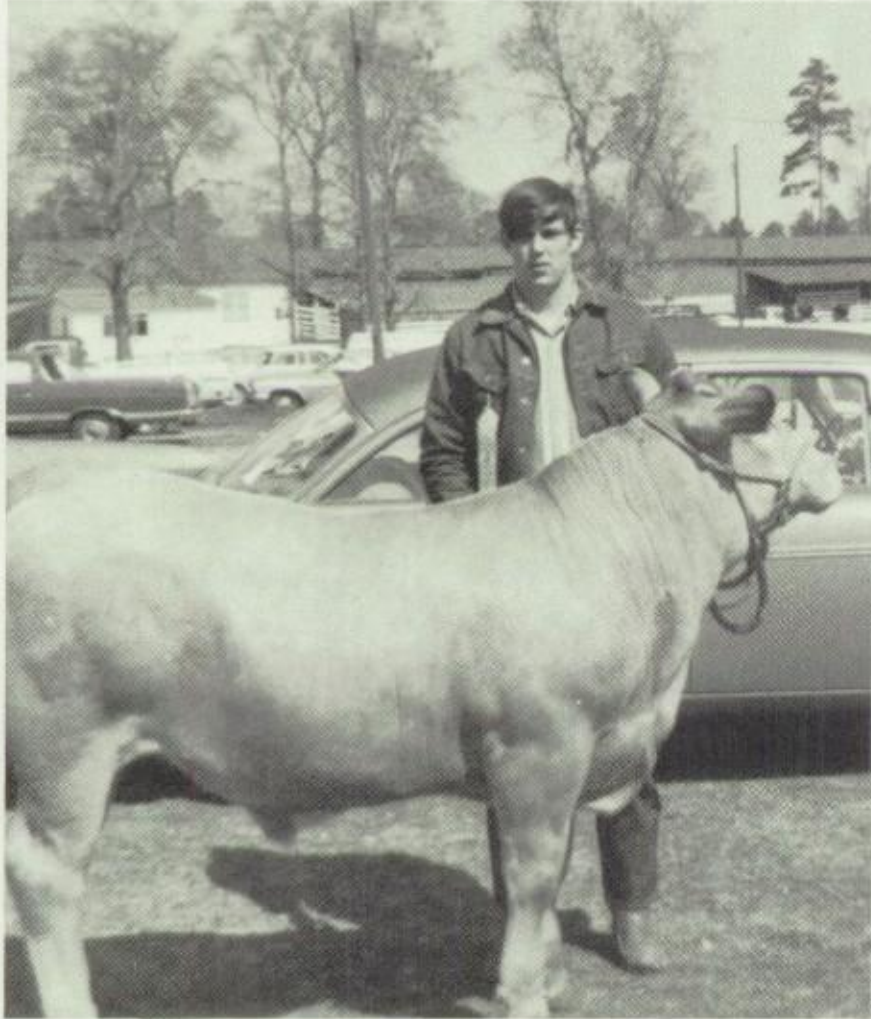

Barrel breaking isn't very easy.

A typical Moscow prison.

Our F.F.A. boys literally took over the show at the annual Livingston Livestock Show and Rodeo March 12 and 13.

Can I help it if he's camera shy?

This is the way I wash my pig.

Scrub-a-dub-dub.

No, this isn't a chicken joke.

April 5-11 marked another milestone for our F.H.A. The organization's objective for National F.H.A. Week was to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living.

A major contributor on Anti-litter day.

Cathy rehearses a speech.

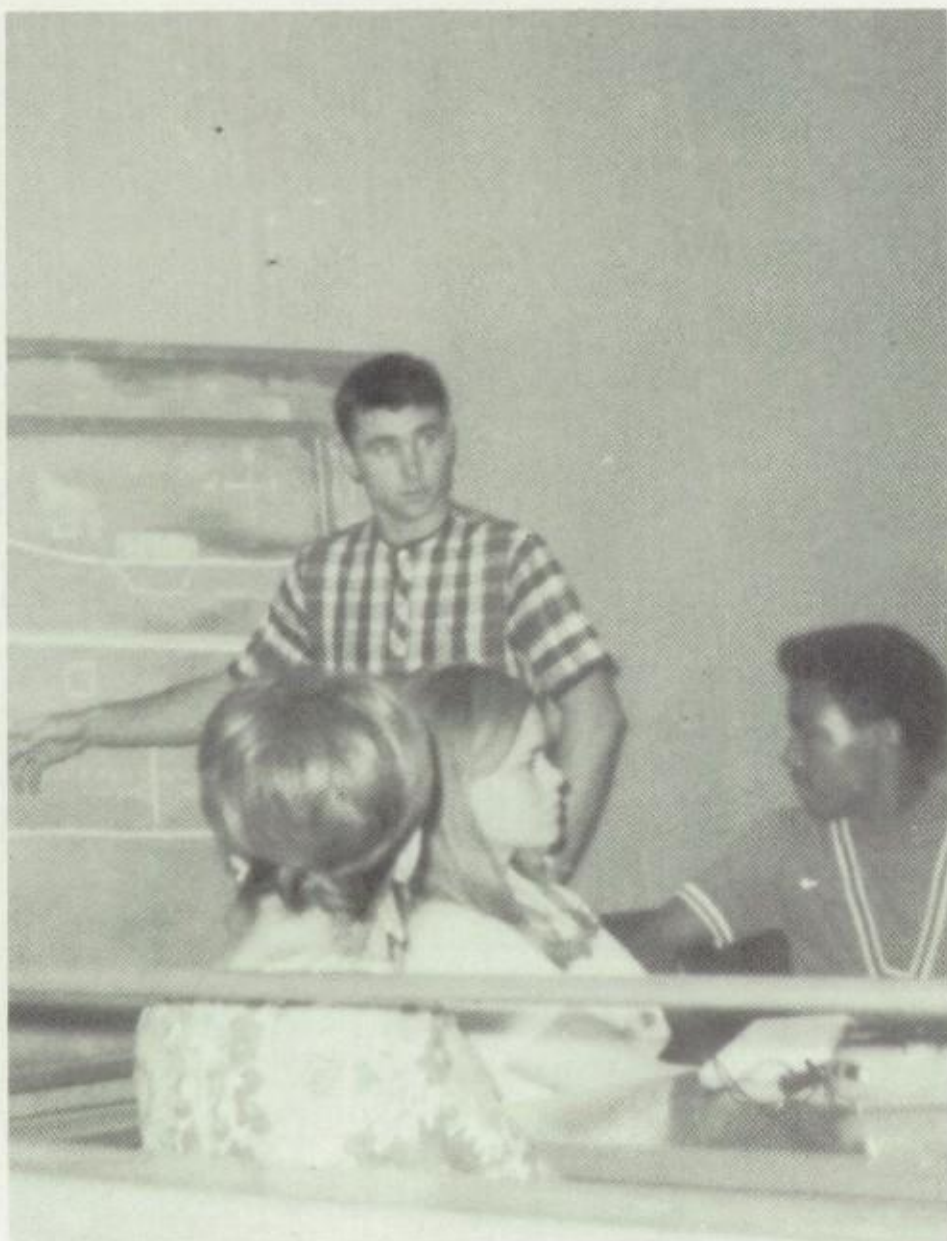

Girls file into class.

My, what a big mess!

On Tuesday, May 12, over 100 students from C-CHS and other district schools attended a mock trial in Livingston. Several of our students participated in the courtroom proceedings, and everyone profited from the experience.

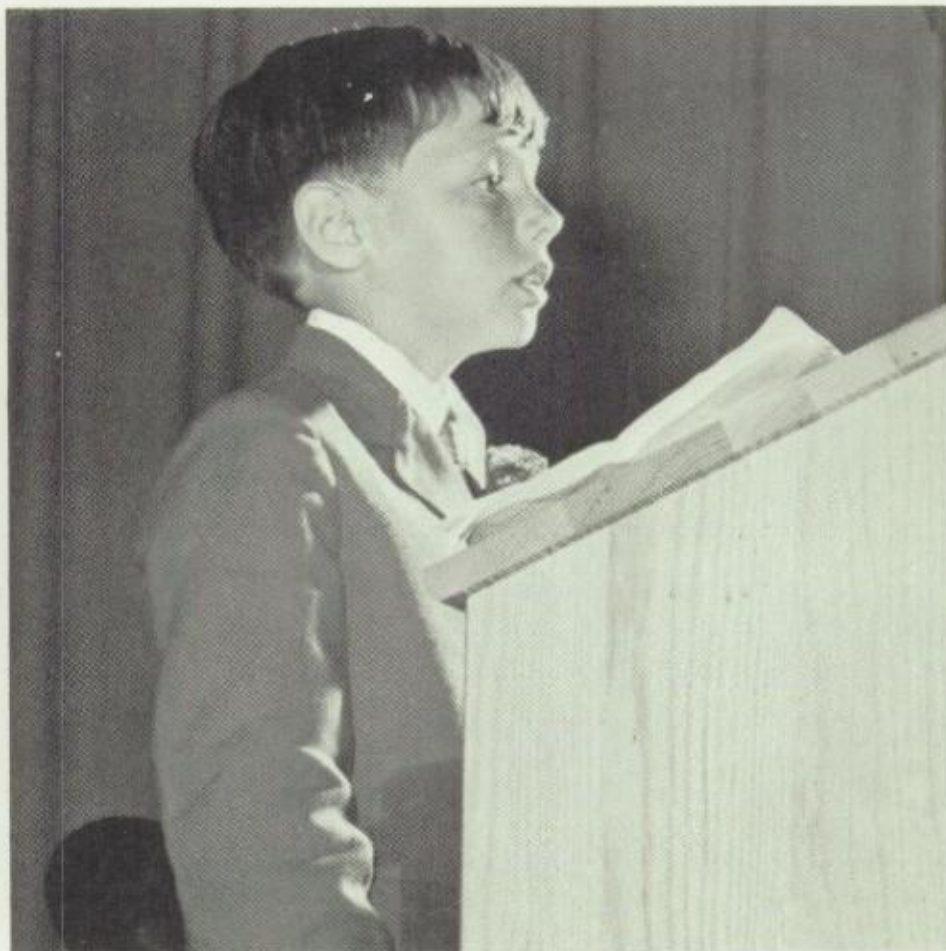

To Seniors, the trip to Galveston will always be a special memory.

Intermediate graduates made their own memories on May 21.

Beverly Cockrell - Valedictorian

Ricky Parrish - Salutatorian

Kathy Hubbard and Alfred Thomas read the class will.

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer."

- Thoreau

Members of the 1976 graduating class.

It was a time to be happy; a time to be sad.

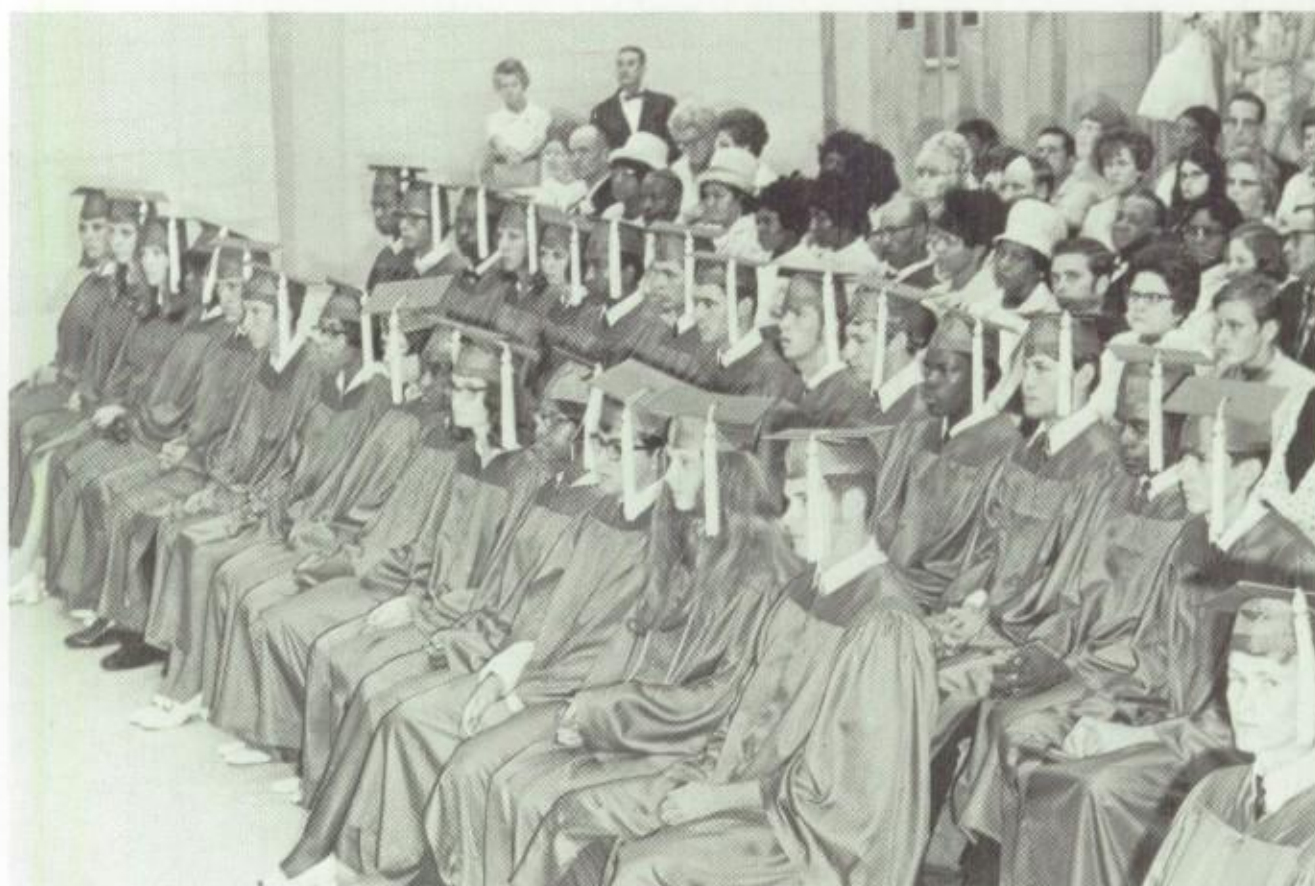

The most important event of the year came on May 22 with the graduation of fifty-six Seniors from C-CHS.

CLASS COLORS
Blue and White

CLASS FLOWER
Purple Iris

CLASS MOTTO
"He who is only wise lives a sad life."

- Voltaire

Members of the 1970 graduating class sat silently, waiting for the moment when Mr. Hyde would present their diplomas.

The valedictorian and salutatorian expressed their views on today's youth.

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.

The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.

Rev. Bayer - Speaker

Everyone enjoyed themselves under the Paris skies.

The Community Inn in Woodville provided the setting for "An Evening in Paris," the theme for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet on May 23.

Andrew Gesford - Master of Ceremonies.

Dining out in gay Paree.

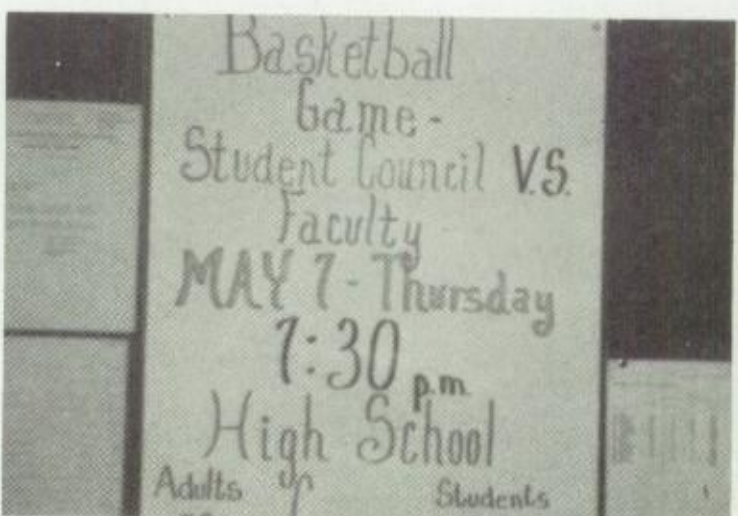

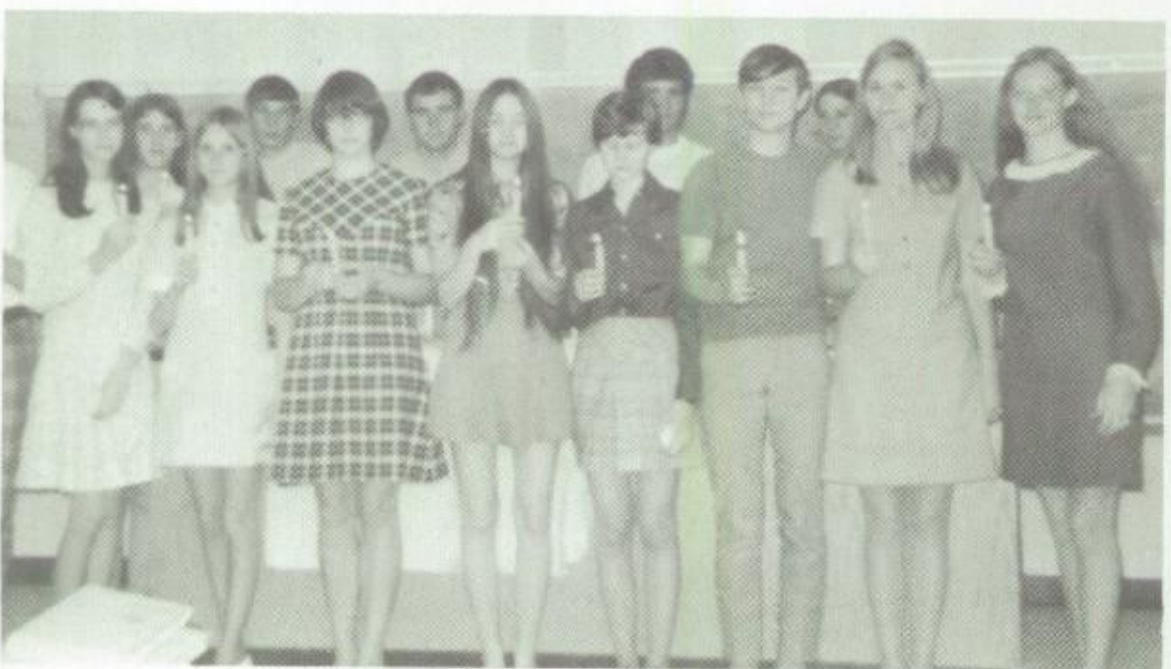

Cathy Lockhart and Lon Helton - Junior prophecy.

Stella Manry, Mary Bolton, Patricia Perkins, and Randy Jones provided entertainment.

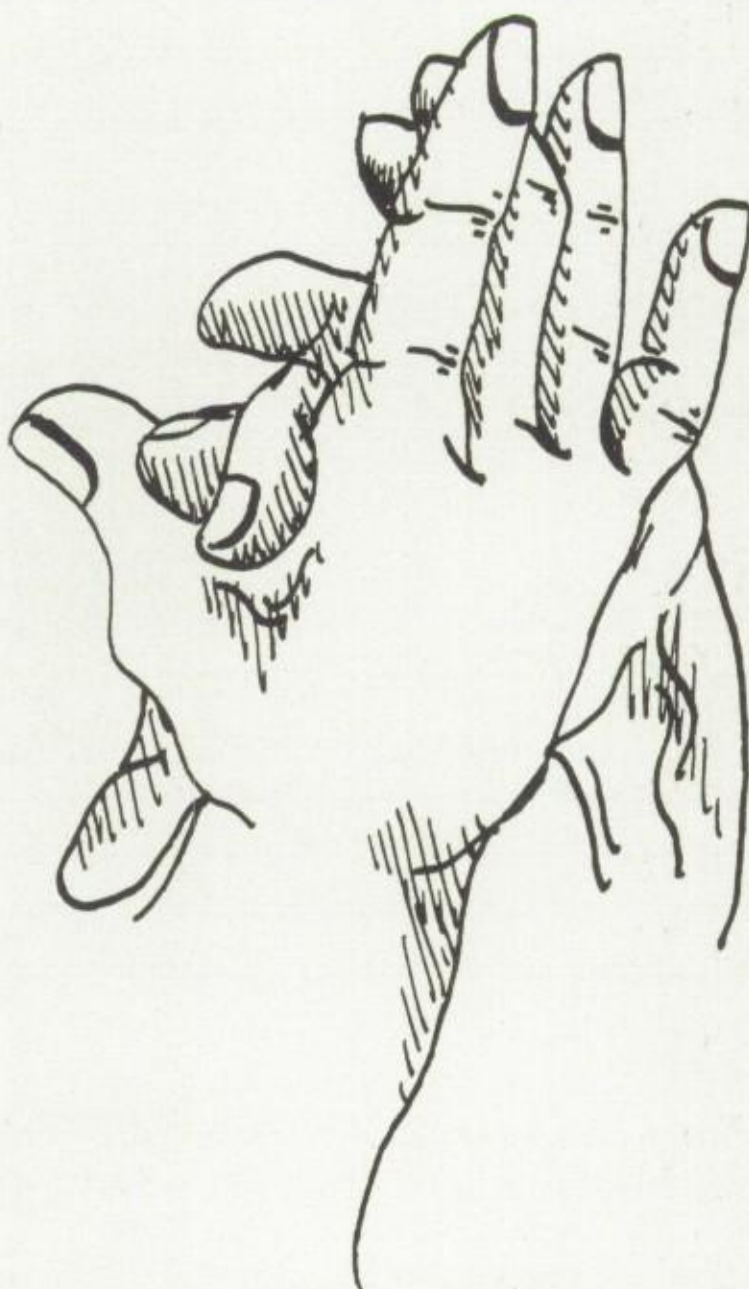

All we have to offer you is a pictorial review of this school year, 1969-1970. Recorded in this section were the physical activities of students and teachers as seen through the lens of a camera and the eyes of other people. It would be impossible to crawl behind your eyes and see the world the way you do. The memories we have saved for you in the BLUE QUILL are everyone's - your memories are your own.

For the work of a man shall be rendered unto him ...

Fall Festival Coronation

The gentry of the Fall Festival paraded in fashion on the night of November 22. The pageant, sponsored by the PTA, was truly a night to remember.

Duchess Dana Locke and Duke Stephen Reilly.

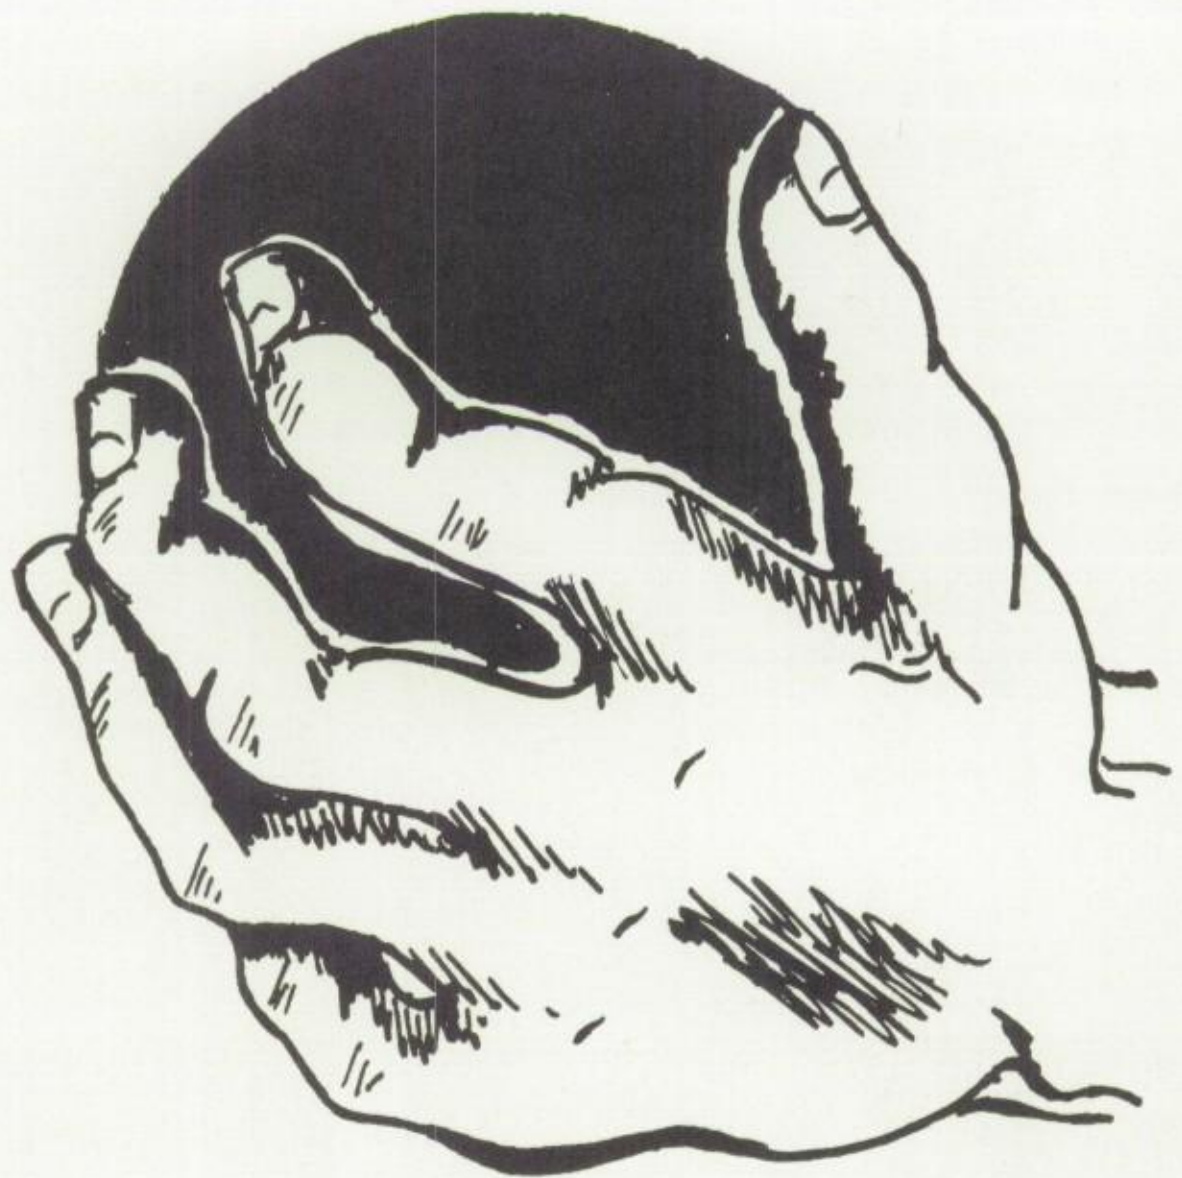

Queen Gena Tolar and King John Sirman are crowned.

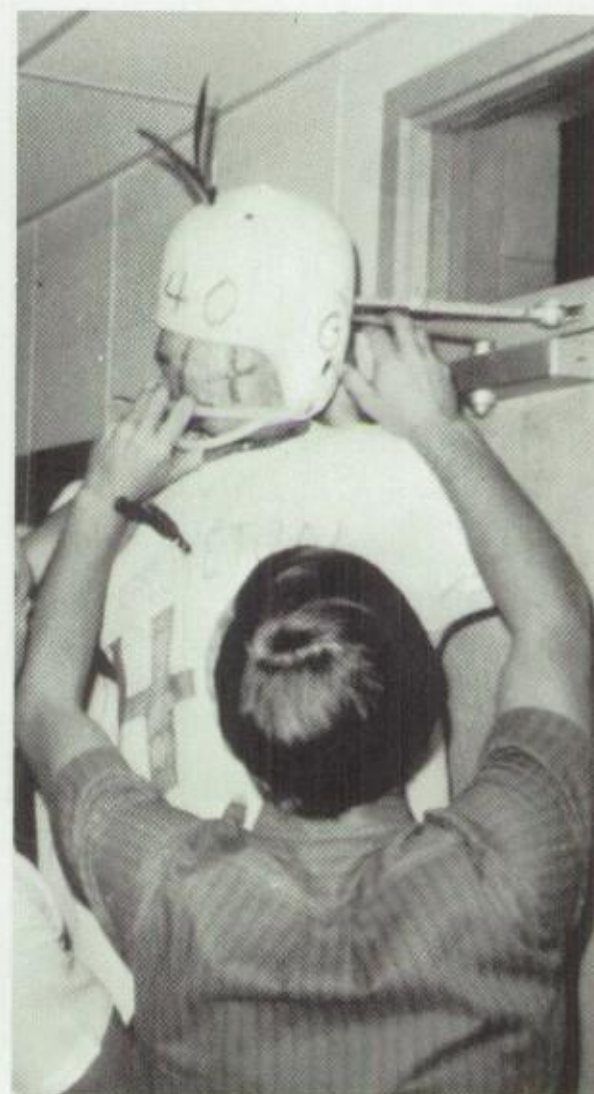

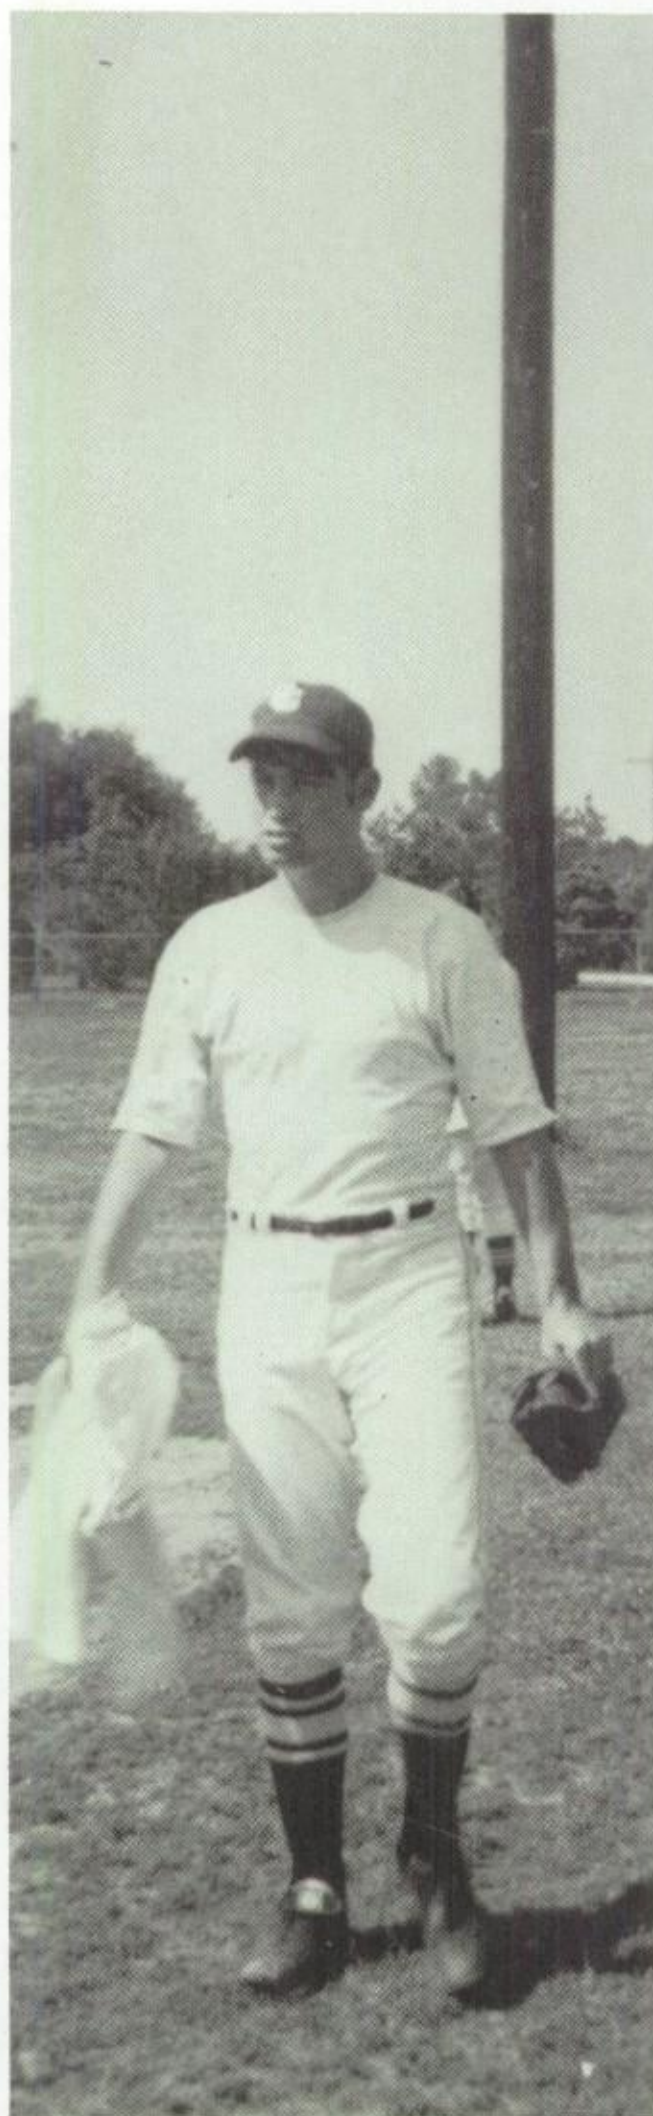

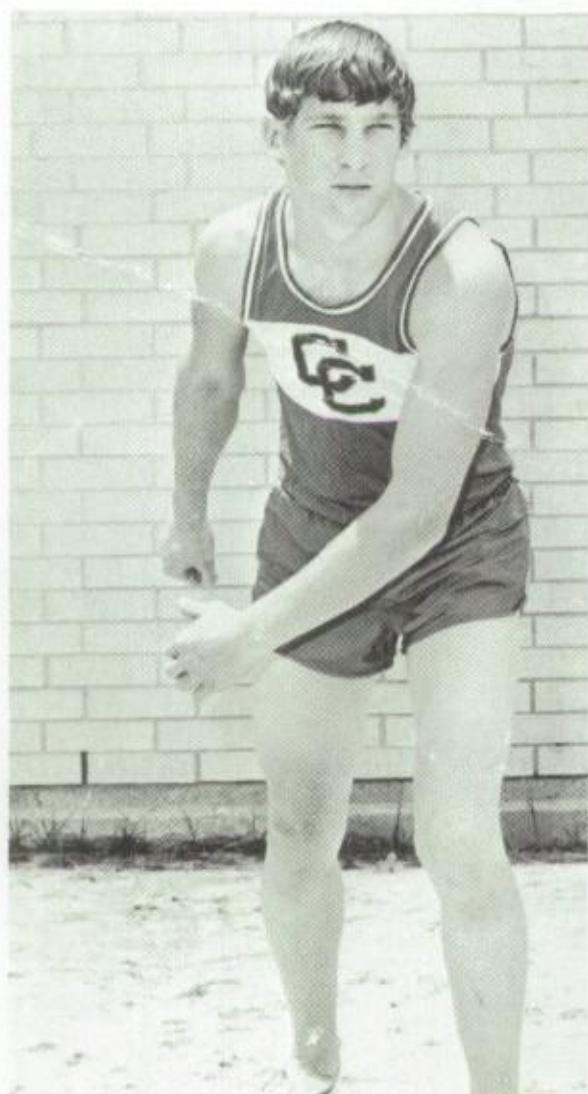

All of the royalty were assembled on-stage for the program.

Lay aside every weight, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us ...

Sports

The Bulldog teams had the will to succeed and the endurance to win. This desire set them steadfast against their opponents. They proved that numbers and size are not as important as desire and ability. Our team worked hard, were eager, and gave their every effort to win. They were well coached in all sports and although at times, outmanned, they were always good sportsmen and competitors.

The success of Corrigan-Camden's 1970 baseball team is largely due to the strong determination of its senior players. These seniors helped in 1968 to win the Zone Co-Championship and in 1969 to win 2nd in District. The 1970 team also placed 2nd in District. They have an outstanding 3-year record of 28-8.

The 1969-70 Bulldog athletes fought their way through their first year of tough AA competition. They were sometimes out-ranked, but never outclassed.

Even though part of the team lacked previous Varsity and training experience, their hustle, determination, and never-say-die spirit made them a definite threat to their experienced opponents.

They shall till the land and bring in the fruits.

Editor's Message

"In the beginning . . ." symbolizes the end of one era and the creation of another. The Board of Trustees, administrators, faculty, and students of Corrigan-Camden High School are the creators. Personal accomplishments, student activities, competitive participation, and scholastic ability compose the framework of the creation.

Infinite creation is possible only as long as new ideas and changes are accepted. The 1969-'70 school year in the new, modernistic Corrigan-Camden High School brought many of these innovations and changes. We, the members of the staff, sincerely hope that some of your fondest memories of this year have been captured in the pages of the Blue Quill, and that "the beginning" at Corrigan-Camden High School will have no end.
